

Air Force Couple Stopped for Lunch

Seated left to right: Mrs. C. V. Nunn Jr., Mrs. Dale Dunn; standing, C. V. Nunn, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James W. Ross and family and Dale Dunn.

C of C Sets Up Prizes for Melon Growers

The Hope Chamber of Commerce announced today that they are now recording the weights of watermelons that are likely to qualify for prizes. Growers are asked to bring their melons to the Chamber office to be weighed on the official scales, however, it is suggested that the melons be left on the vine as long as they are growing.

Three hundred seventy-five dollars ($375.00) in merchandise has been provided by the business men of Hope to be awarded as follows:

For The Largest Melon, $250.00 in merchandise.

For The Second Largest, $100.00 in merchandise.

For The Largest Tom Watson, $25.00 in merchandise.

Prize winning melons become the property of the Hope Chamber of Commerce and will be used for publicity purposes. No grower may win more than one prize. If a grower should have the two largest melons he could qualify for the first prize. The person growing the next largest would qualify for the second prize.

The largest melon brought in so far was grown by Garland Rosenbaum of Fulton Route No. 1. Its weight was 123 1/2 pounds.

One Killed in Colorado State Prison Riot

BUENA VISTA, Colo. (AP) — An inmate of the Colorado State Reformatory was shot to death and four others were wounded last night in a wild, 5-minute riot by 150 prisoners.

They were locked inside a cell block with three guards but soon 60 officers, armed and shouting, broke it up.

Warden James S. Thomas opened fire first.

"I was going really bad by the time I arrived," Thomas said later. "I saw what had to be done, and I set the example. I started firing."

As the turmoil of flying chairs, swinging fists, bunk fires and passing bullets, Evaristo Gonzalez was killed. Three other inmates in the thick of the fight were shot in the leg and a bullet hit another in his finger.

Two guards were beaten unconscious.

One of them, Robert Allinger, 47, threw the lock that prevented any of the youths from leaving. He and guard Sam Montgomery, 48, were then badly beaten.

They were marching more than 200 of the camp's nearly 400 inmates into the cell block after dinner and recreation. Many were those inside suddenly grabbed chairs and began plummeting the two guards with their fists and clubs.

LITTLE LIZ

What you don't know may not hurt you, but it sure makes you feel pretty stupid.

Senate Starts Debating Civil Rights Measure

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Ervin (D-NC) said today it would be physically impossible for a small minority of Southern senators to filibuster long enough to prevent passage of the compromise civil rights bill.

While some of Ervin's constituents would like to see him, filibuster Ervin told the Senate, "I am compelled to recognize the facts of legislative life."

The North Carolina senator, former judge, led off debate today against Senate adoption of the measure the House passed 207-9 yesterday.

One of those legislative facts he said, is that opponents of the measure constitute "a small minority" of the Senate and it would be "physically impossible for the minority to filibuster until Jan. 1, 1959."

This was a reference to the fact that current Congress runs until that time.

Another fact of legislative life, Ervin said, is that a filibuster would increase the temptation of proponents of the bill to change Senate Rule 22 which allows unlimited debate on any issue.

Despite Ervin's stand, the Senate still expected some long talk by Southerners. But an all-out filibuster seemed unlikely.

Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said that as far as he is concerned critics of the measure will have all the time they need to talk against it.

The Senate debate actually began last night after the bill arrived from the House.

Sen. Thurmond (D-SC) offered a surprise motion to shunt the measure to the Judiciary Committee headed by Sen. Eastland (D-Miss), another avowed foe of the civil rights bill.

The motion took Republican and Democratic leaders by surprise. Sen. Russell (D-Cal.), chairman of Southern forces, said he had not known of it. But after about two hours debate, the Senate rejected the motion 68-12.

Johnson then called for a recess until today.

Pay Hikes for U. S. Workers May Get Veto

WASHINGTON (UP) — Republicans predicted today President Eisenhower will veto as inflationary Congress-passed pay boosts for 1,488,000 federal workers.

The two big pay boost bills would fatten the pay envelopes for postal and government white collar workers an estimated $816, 640,000 a year.

The Senate last night overwhelmingly approved both bills despite strong administration objections and persistent forecasts of presidential veto. The bills—already easily cleared through the House—were sent to the White House.

The President has repeatedly denounced the bills as inflationary. Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland flatly predicted Eisenhower would veto both of them. Others echoed the prediction.

The postal pay bill would affect about 518,000 letter carriers and other Postal Office department field workers and would cost an estimated 279 million dollars a year. Their average increase would be $546 a year.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

REPRIEVED — Because of a disagreement over the sanity of convicted killer Emmett Earl Leggett, 20, who was scheduled to die August 30 for the murder of a 14-year-old Jacksonville, Ark., boy, Gov. Orval Faubus has granted a reprieve until final reports can be studied. A team of Topeka, Kansas psychiatrists found Leggett insane, but a report from the Arkansas state hospital found him "without psychosis" and legally responsible for the December 1955 crime. — NEA Telephoto

Hospitality Planes in Hope at 3 Thursday

Fifteen planes of the annual Miss Hospitality state-wide tour will arrive at the Hope airport at 3 p. m. Thursday, to be joined here by Miss Judy Franks, Hope's Miss Hospitality candidate.

The air armada will leave Texarkana at 2:30, arrive in Hope at 3, spend half an hour here, and depart at 3:30 for Camden.

Chris Finkbeiner, Little Rock meat packer, is commander of the tour.

The tour this week will cover the state and wind up in Little Rock for the finals of the Miss Hospitality judging at 8 p. m. Friday on the estate of Robinson Memorial Auditorium.

On Saturday the girls will be guests at an Arkansas Traveler baseball game dedicated to them.

Amount of Flu Vaccine Is Revised

WASHINGTON (AP) — Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said today a larger-than-expected amount of Asian flu vaccine may be available by the first of the year.

The Public Health Service chief said manufacturers now expect to produce between 60 million and 85 million doses of the vaccine by Jan. 1. The original goal announced earlier was 60 million doses by Feb. 1.

Burney gave the new figures in an interview in connection with a meeting of the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers of the United States.

The group opened a two-day conference yesterday to map plans for combating possible large-scale outbreaks of the flu this fall or winter.

A Navy report submitted to the association yesterday said between 35,000 and 40,000 cases of the disease have been reported so far among Navy and Marine Corps personnel in various parts of the world, including the United States. Discussing these cases, a spokesman said there had been only two deaths that might possibly be related to Asian flu.

Dr. Carl Dauer of the Public Health Service said the current estimate of the total number of confirmed cases in this country is 30,000, including both civilians and military personnel.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

Judging Instructions Given to 14 Youths

Beef cattle judging instruction was given fourteen 4-H Club boys and leaders yesterday by Ned Ray Purdie at the Purdie farm using Herefords, Dick Arnold of Victory Club, Joe England of Shover Springs Club and Imon Brown and Larry Carman of Sweet Home Club were selected to attend a swine and beef cattle judging study at Nashville on Friday with 4-H Club boys of Howard, Pike, Nevada, Little River and Sevier Counties. Ned Ray Purdie and County Agent Oliver L. Adams will attend the Friday study with the boys.

Compromise on Foreign Aid Is Discussed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate and House conferees sit down today to seek a compromise on the foreign aid money bill. It appeared likely they might split a $310,000,000 difference.

The Senate last night passed the bill by a 63-25 roll call vote after beating back efforts to cut below the $3,692,710,000 recommended by its Appropriations Committee.

The House some time ago passed a bill totaling $3,191,815,000. Both Senate and House totals include new and reappropriated money for military and economic aid in the fiscal year that began July 1.

The Senate bill is $747,500,000 below President Eisenhower's original aid request, but Eisenhower made plain after the Senate vote that he would be happy to settle for that amount under the circumstances.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Senate Republican Leader Knowledge of California teamed in the successful effort to preserve the Appropriations Committee's recommended total.

Senators seeking to trim the $3,692,710,000 total made their big drive to hold new military aid funds to the $600 figure of $1.1 billion dollars. They lost 59-20 and then dropped plans to seek roll call votes on other reduction moves.

Thirty Democrats and 32 Republicans voted to pass the bill. Fourteen Democrats—11 from the South and 11 Republicans voted against it.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

The Senate bill carries $3,025, 600,000 in new appropriations and $607,050,000 in reappropriations of unspent money left over from previous years.

Violence Threat in L. R. School Integration Plan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first open threat of segregationist violence has been sounded in the swelling resistance to planned racial integration at Little Rock high schools.

An unidentified man at a segregation meeting last night took the floor to ask how many persons would be at Central High School when classes start next Tuesday to "push back" any Negroes who seek entry.

"And I imagine there are a few shotguns in Little Rock, too," he added.

The threat capped a day which saw these developments in the school integration controversy:

1. Members of the segregationist Mothers League adopted a petition urging Gov. Orval Faubus to prevent "forcible integration" of city high schools.

2. A Little Rock mother filed a suit in Pulaski Chancery Court asking for a temporary injunction to block high school integration.

3. Gov. Orval Faubus said he anticipated that the pro-segregationist state Sovereignty Commission would intervene in two earlier suits filed at Little Rock in connection with integration of classes.

4. School Supt. Virgil T. Blossom said a meeting to discuss possible police protection for Negroes entering previously all-white high schools probably would be held tomorrow.

About 250 men and women last night attended a Mothers League meeting at which the hint of possible violence was given.

The Rev. Wesley Pruden, pastor of the Broadmoor Baptist Church here, asked the mothers' league to oppose integration "in a Christian way." He asked the audience to attend hearings on two Pulaski Chancery Court suits aimed at stalling high school integration.

One of the suits is to be heard tomorrow and the other is scheduled for hearing Friday.

The latest suit involving integration, filed yesterday, asks Chancellor Murray O. Reed to issue a temporary injunction prohibiting public school integration here.

This is the suit which will be heard tomorrow. It was filed by Mrs. Clyde Thomason, recording secretary of the Little Rock mothers league.

If granted, the injunction would be in effect until a ruling is made on Arkansas' four state segregation laws enacted this year. Two suits—the one to be heard in chancery court Friday and a federal suit for which no hearing date has been set—would test the constitutionality of these state laws.

Mrs. Thomason's suit named Supt. Blossom and the Little Rock School Board as defendants.

Gov. Faubus, who is ex-officio chairman of the 12-member Sovereignty Commission, yesterday reiterated his statement of last week that the commission would hold its initial meeting sometime this week. Pressed for a specific date, he replied that one had not been set.

Continued on Page Three

Weather

Experiment Station report for 24-hours ending at 7 a. m. Wednesday, Aug. 28: High 90, Low 64. Total precipitation for August 41.04 inch; Total rainfall for year, 48.65 inches.

RED RIVER rose 0.3 to 4.4 feet at Fulton and was standing at 5.4 at Index; Little River was at pool stage of 4.5 feet at Horatio and steady at 3.5 feet at Index; Little change expected in either river within next few days.

ARKANSAS: Partly cloudy, widely scattered thundershowers Thursday and in north portion this afternoon and tonight. No important temperature changes. High this afternoon high 80s to high 90s; low tonight in the 60s.

LOUISIANA: Partly cloudy through Thursday. Scattered showers Thursday and near the coast this afternoon.

By The Associated Press

Central, southeast and southwest Arkansas: Clear to partly cloudy and mild through Thursday with a change of widely scattered thundershowers Thursday. Little change in humidity. Outlook Saturday to Monday afternoon: Mild temperatures and little or no precipitation. High this afternoon low 90s central, low to mid 90s southeast and southwest; low tonight in the 60s central, south and southwest.

Northeast and northwest Arkansas: Clear to partly cloudy and mild through Thursday with widely scattered thundershowers. Little change in humidity. Outlook Saturday to Monday afternoon: Mild temperatures and little or no precipitation. High this afternoon near 90 northeast, low to mid 90s northwest; low tonight low to mid 90s northeast and northwest.

Car Overtakes, Man Charged With DWI

W. T. Jones, 32, of Texarkana, escaped injury about 10:30 a. m. today when the Studebaker convertible he was driving went out of control and overturned on Highway 67, midway between Hope and Emmet. He was riding alone. The auto was badly damaged. State Policeman Charlie Boyd investigated the accident and charged the Texarkanian, enroute home from Indiana, with driving while intoxicated.

Agreement to Protect FBI Data Sought

WASHINGTON (UP)—A House-Senate committee today sought a compromise bill to safeguard the secrecy of the FBI's confidential files.

Passage of some legislation to spell out a limitation as to how much FBI information a defendant is entitled to was virtually assured in the closing days of the session. Both the House and Senate have approved bills to modify the effect of a Supreme Court decision in the Jencks case.

The question the House-Senate conference committee will decide is a matter of degree.

The House bill passed yesterday is considerably tougher than the Senate version. The administration and the FBI have backed the House bill.

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) of the House Judiciary Committee said he was "quite sure" that the House-Senate conference would agree to the Senate version—or a modification of it.

The House rejected an attempt by Celler to substitute a bill almost identical to the Senate's.

VFW Meeting Is Tonight at 8

Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at the Fut, east on Highway 67. An interesting program has been planned. All members are urged to be out.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

The companion measure would give an average raise of $515 a year to 970,000 civil service workers at an estimated cost of $537,640,000 annually. The maximum raise would be $1,000 and employees earning more than $10,000 would not be affected.

Dulles Ruins Deal for U. S. Newsmen

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — If Secretary of State Dulles and his State Department had deliberately set out to mess up the chance for American newsmen to go to Red China they couldn't have done it better. For a year Dulles had refused to let American reporters to go to the China mainland. For a year he had been under pressure from American news and radio-TV executives and some members of Congress to lift his ban.

He yielded last Thursday — to a very limited degree — by saying 24 reporters could go to Red China for a trial period of six months. But at the very moment of doing so, he and his department used language which seemed unnecessary, unless perhaps for face-saving, and which the Red Chinese could hardly fail to find insulting.

Dulles said the Red Chinese couldn't send their reporters here on a reciprocal basis and his department, explaining why the ban had been eased a bit on Americans going to China, suggested it was because the newsmen might find disasters there.

The Communists reacted, as they might have been expected to. The result: They haven't yet let the Americans in. And now no one can predict when they will get in, if at all. This is the story: No American newsman had been in Red China as an accredited correspondent since the mainland fell to the Communists in 1949. And this country has refused to recognize the Red regime as the legitimate government of China.

But on Aug. 3, 1956, Red China announced 15 American would be permitted to report from the China mainland for a month. The State Department said the newsmen couldn't go until the Red Chinese freed all Americans held in their jails. This was a form of censorship. Dulles was making American news media a part of the administration's foreign policy. The news executives began their protests.

The pressure on Dulles to lift his ban continued. And last Thursday, Aug. 22, his department said 24 American newsmen could go to China, even though it pointed out that six Americans — with sentences ranging from five years of life — are still in Red Chinese jails. The department says these Americans have been imprisoned on trumped-up charges of espionage. But Americans are still in jail and now Dulles says Americans can go to China, although a year ago his department said none could go until all American prisoners were released. What had changed?

Dulles issued a statement which said in part: "New factors have come into the picture, making it desirable that additional information be made available to the American people respecting current conditions in China." What new factors? State Department officials said they included reports on food shortages, natural disasters, production failures and a statement last February by Chinese leaders that the Hungarian revolt had a heavy impact on China.

The Red Chinese could hardly fail to interpret this as meaning: "Dulles now is willing to let American newsmen into China because he thought they might be able to make the Red regime look bad. This was aside from the fact that Dulles was setting himself up as judge on when and under what circumstances the American people should be permitted to have news from inside China."

Nowhere did he suggest he wanted the newsmen to report objectively on what they found — about the good as well as the bad. But Dulles' crowning touch was this statement: "It is understood that the United States will not record, nor report, nor issue Chinese bearing passport issued by the Chinese Communist regime."

This was something which did not need to be said, even for bargaining purposes — at least until the Red Chinese said they wanted to send their newsmen here. They hadn't said that until Dulles wanted a reciprocal exchange. The reaction came Aug. 23 from the Peking newspaper — the Chinese People's Daily — which often, but not always, reflects the views of the Chinese government. It said his plan was "completely unacceptable to the Chinese people."

It insisted the United States let Red Chinese newsmen come here on a reciprocal basis. And as might have been expected from the State Department's talk of looking for disasters, the newspaper accused the department of trying to send in American newsmen to collect intelligence information and stir up trouble.

On Aug. 25 and 26 State Department officials rejected the idea of reciprocity. But yesterday, Aug.

In case of illness or accident, call on...
Oakerest Ambulance
A. A. Oakerest
D. A. Oakerest
Dial 7-2123
Oakerest Chapel, Inc.
100 E. Second Hope, Ark.

Search Spreads for Escaped Convicts

PINE BLUFF, Ark. — Jefferson County officers, searching woods in the nearby Altheimer area for two escaped convicts, yesterday flushed out a 13-year-old boy who had run away from home.

The teenager, frightened by the baying of bloodhounds, ran to an uncle's house. Police said he was returned to his parents at Altheimer.

No sign was found of the two prisoners, Johnny Billy West, 32, of Lincoln, and L. Breckenridge, 23, of Kennett Mo. State Police said both walked off from nearby Tucker Prison Farm Sunday afternoon.

A nine million dollar federal office building will be constructed on it.

The General Services Administration earlier had advertised for sites but rejected all as unsuitable.

U.S. District Judge Ronald N. Davies of Fargo, N.D., signed the agreement and a check for the $650,000.

Yesterday the federal government paid $650,000 for the vacant

Inflation Talk Is Turning to Deflation

Editor's Note — Talk of deflation is spreading from Wall Street to Main Street. Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst, discusses the talk and the business trends that gave birth to it in a two-part series starting today.

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — The steam in the inflation boiler isn't thumping as loudly. More talk is heard today of the chance that deflation may be ahead.

Businessmen and stock market traders are paying more heed to the scattered signs of industrial slowdown and of cautious or reluctant buying.

And when prices of some commodities fall or price cutting breaks out in consumer goods here and there much more notice is being taken than was just a few weeks back.

What does it add up to so far, the trends are more of a possibility than of jelled fact. But even some top government officials are now saying we may have hit the peak—in interest rates, in production facility expansion, in national income.

Until mid-July the stock market was in an inflationary mood. Then the professionals either took to the sidelines or started selling in the panic, right or wrong, that the fat business pickup would be small or nonexistent.

The bond market was in a slump while the inflation theory was rampant. Then the head of the federal reserve opined that interest rates might have hit their peak, and bonds looked better and buying rallied their prices.

The chiefs of the New York and Cleveland districts of the federal reserve later swung into line with the higher rates.

The federal reserve's top man in Washington told senators a trend is developing—toward more saving and less spending on the part of both consumers and business. More spending would feed inflationary fires. More saving will help quench them.

The outgoing undersecretary of the Treasury reported signs that the tight money policy was finally working.

The Treasury's top money manager added that some industries may find they were overconfident of demand when they expanded their capacity to produce.

Big city bankers joined the chorus. The First National City Bank of New York, the nation's second largest, reported businessmen guided in their ordering more by the chance of falling prices than of rising ones.

Chicago's Northern Trust Co. noted consumer spending being influenced adversely by reluctance to pay higher prices.

Small city bankers agree. A Boise, Idaho, banker tells the trade paper, the American Banker, that "the present cycle — at least, in its more violent phases — is about at an end."

Sues NAACP in Behalf of State

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett yesterday sued the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and a related organization for more than $5,350 on behalf of the state of Arkansas.

Pulaski Chancery Court said asked to order the NAACP to pay $550 plus penalty and costs allegedly unpaid corporation franchise taxes in the past seven years.

The AAP Legal Aid and Educational Funds was sued for $5,000 in Pulaski Circuit Court. Bennett said it owed that amount as statutory penalty for operating in Arkansas without filing a copy of its charter as a foreign corporation.

But they don't see deflation as anything more than a possibility. Tomorrow, the trends in business that are cited as deflation signals.

NOTICE

The undersigned banks will be closed all day Monday, September 2, in observance of Labor Day.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK

Oklahoma TIRE & SUPPLY

Labor Day Specials

Held over This Week! Brunswick's Fabulous "Trade and Save" Offer

$13 Trade-in Allowance on New NYLON Protected Brunswick TIRES

2 for $36.90 6.70x15 with 2 Trade-ins

Orasco—the nation's largest Brunswick tire dealer—holds over its fabulous "Trade and Save" offer for a third big week. Start safe... Drive safe... Arrive safe this Labor Day on Nylon protected Blackwall tires. Guaranteed nationwide for 24 months against all road hazards.

Size	Reg. Price	Trade-in Allowance	Sale Price 2 Tires
6.00x16	$43.90	$11.00	$32.90
6.70x15	49.90	13.00	36.90
7.10x15	53.90	11.00	42.90
7.60x15	57.90	11.00	46.90

All prices plus tax and old tire. Similar Savings on 24-Month Whitewalls

Nationwide 24-Month Guarantee

Everything You Need to Camp Out!

$5.98 Camp Cot Reinforced hard wood frame, (60-250-3)

$4.66 With slip out food tray. Big 19" x 11 1/2" x 9" size. (60-171-4)

$8.44 2 piece all steel body. (60-160-4)

$9.95 Ice Box

$3.49 Spout Jug

$2.88 your choice! $9.95

Save $1.51 Casting Rod and Reel Both For $6.66

Enjoy your fishing trip with a new famous-brand rod and reel. Tubular glass spincast rod with graduated guides. Great Lakes reel! Spin-Cast Rod Reduced $4.44 Casting Reel Reduced $2.88

"Teenager" Special LUNCH KIT

Reg. $2.00 $1.77

Save 92¢ on this back-to-school "Thermos" lunch kit with big 10-oz. bottle. Decorated with colorful teen-age characters. Built-in "name" plates. (60-418)

Look-Thru Plastic Seat Covers

Compare at $28.00 $18.88

Enjoy your beautiful upholstery with these pleated Look-thru plastic covers. Protects fabrics from dirt and wear. Electrically welded seams that resist tearing and pulling. (17-286-3 thru 287-9)

$1.25 A Week

FREE! Auto Polish Cloth

Johnson's "Carnu" or "J-Wax"

your choice! $7.95

There's no drag on the rag. Gives your car a sparkling showroom shine, and you get a Free polishing cloth with the purchase of 1-pint can of "Carnu" or 9-oz. can of "J-wax". (31-282 & 283)

Garment Hanger

Reg. $1.19 88¢

Arrive with clothes free of wrinkles after your Labor Day trip. Rod type hanger.

Twin Car Mats

Reg. $1.98 $1.59

Custom shaped rubber mats. Cut to fit floor perfectly. (17-90-9)

Wind Silencers

Reg. $1.29 98¢

Reduce wind sounds and let you enjoy your radio or conversation. (1-424)

Car Coolers

Reg. $1.50 $1.08

Travel in cool comfort this Labor Day. Window type evaporative cooler. (17-240-3)

FREE 12 oz. Can of Brake Fluid With Set of Brake Shoes

Genuine Bonded Brake Shoes

Ford to '54 Merc to '54 Chev to '56 Olds to '56 Ply to '55 Dodge to '54 and others $5.98 Each

69¢ Heavy Duty Brake Fluid. Reduced to 19¢ with shoes

Heavy Duty Motor Oil

Save to $1.72 $1.88 2 gal.

Guaranteed equal in quality to oil selling in service stations for 45¢ qt. Protects against engine wear. 79¢ Filter Refills, 47¢ C3 and C4 from 47¢ Micron Refills, each 89¢

Back-to-School Savings

Ride a New MONARK Back-to-School $49.88

Less a Liberal Trade-in Allowance

- ★ Chain Guard
- ★ Kick Stand
- ★ Boys' or Girls' Models
- ★ Headlight
- ★ Horn in Tank

Lightweight Sports Bike Boys' or Girls' Models $44.99

Less Liberal Old Bike Allowance. Loaded with features including famous "Sturmey-Archer" rear hub! (60-190-9)

Locker Padlock 19¢ Die Cast. (60-329-3)

Combination Lock for school lockers 47¢ (40-330)

Bicycle Padlock 39¢ (40-330) Reduced

Bicycle Combination Lock 57¢ (40-330)

Reflective Tape Reduced! 33¢ Bright red Scotchlite Reflecting Tape for bike fenders, bumpers, cars. (1-50-4)

Tire Pump $1.19 88¢ Handy for tires and inflatable toys. Strong pressure tested rubber hose. (1-180-2)

A New Muffler May Mean the Difference Between a Safe Trip and an Accident

Don't Gamble With Your Family's Safety Replace That Old Muffler Now!

A leaky muffler can cause accidents, and rob your car of power. Replace that old muffler now before the Labor Day week-end, with a "Long Life" Muffler.

Merc. '42-49 Ford '42-53 Chev. '41-53 Pontiac '34-54 and others $7.99 Installed

Ford '54-56 Chev. '54-56 Merc. '49-51 Buick '49-53 and others $9.99 Installed

Transmission Fluid

60¢ Valve 39¢

Put your transmission in top working condition. For Hy. dramatic, and others. (31-394)

Expertly Installed in Shop Sale Prices

Chassis Shock Every 2 Years or 15,000 Miles

Safer Smoother Shock Absorbers

Save $8 Over Garage Prices! $4.99 each Installed

Old shocks cause dangerous wheel shimmy, ride away and expensive repair bills. Don't let your Labor Day weekend be spoiled by rough uncomfortable travel. Let us install dependable Monroe shocks now.

SAFARI Trojan Spark Plugs

ANY CAR IN TOWN! Reg. $3.92 $2.99

Complete set for any car in town. Equal to the best Ignition Points at 19¢ as 49¢

Tripled Jack

Reg. $9.29 $5.44

Lifts even the heaviest cars with perfect ease. Crank operated. Holds car level.

Our Personnel:

Paul L. Church
Mildred Church
Fannie Bohannon
Jack Sumpter
Charles Jones
Don Gemmill
James M. Fuller

SAVE! Bike Accessories

Handbar Grips 19¢ With Finger Grips. (67-340)

Pneumatic Oil 19¢ Cuts rust from balls, etc. (67-174)

49¢ Neverleak Fluid 39¢ Stops tire leaks. (67-374)

Rear View Mirror 49¢ Chrome plated. (67-240-3)

$1.19 Bike Basket 98¢ Easy to install. (67-240-3)

SAVE! Bike Accessories

Handbar Grips 19¢ With Finger Grips. (67-340)

Pneumatic Oil 19¢ Cuts rust from balls, etc. (67-174)

49¢ Neverleak Fluid 39¢ Stops tire leaks. (67-374)

Rear View Mirror 49¢ Chrome plated. (67-240-3)

$1.19 Bike Basket 98¢ Easy to install. (67-240-3)

HOME OF BETTER VALUES

Oklahoma TIRE & SUPPLY

110 East Second Street — Phone 7-2161

PRICES GOOD NOW THRU LABOR DAY!

SOCIETY

Phone 7-3431 Between 8 A. M. and 4 P. M.

Calendar

Wednesday August 28
The Chapel Choir of the First Methodist Church will meet Wednesday morning at 9:30 at the church instead of 10 o'clock as previously announced.

Monday September 2
Circle No. 2 WSCS will meet in the Lillian Routh class room of the First Methodist Church at 3:30 Monday afternoon. Mrs. R. T. White, chairman.

Saturday August 31
Hope Country Club will entertain with informal Hi-School and College dance Saturday night August 31, from 8:30 till 11:30.

Miss Marilynn Shiver Complimented
Miss Jacqueline Williams entertained Monday, August 26, 1957, with a morning party for Miss Marilynn Shiver, bride-elect of Ronald Nations of Kingsport, Tennessee.

From her trousseau the honoree chose a black jumper with a black and white polka-dot blouse. The hostess presented her with a white corsage of fleur d' amour and to Mrs. Harry W. Shiver, mother of the bride-elect was given a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

During the party, which was held in the Williams' home, the guests enjoyed making tiny, pastel colored, rice bags to be distributed at the wedding reception. The group of ladies were served cake and coffee and salad.

The hostess presented Miss Shiver with a gift of china in her chosen pattern.

Garland Parent-Teacher Meets
The Garland Parent-Teacher executive committee met in the home of Mrs. Harold Brens Tuesday, August 27th to plan the 1957-58 P. T. A. year.

Mrs. Jack Gardner, president of the Association, distributed the committee literature and read the ideals of the P. T. A. She stressed the goals and stated that the instruction to the child in the home, the health, safety and conservation of the heritage of all concerned were of primary importance. Mrs. Gardner gave a report on the various meetings she had attended during the year and stated that they wanted the parents to know that the purpose is the educational program between the home and the school and not at any time is the Parent-Teacher Association a money-making organization.

The Garland PTA will strive to carry on the programs to help the Scouts and various other organizations in the school program.

We urge every one as a parent to join the PTA the day that you enroll your child in school and become an active member of the finest organization where the child, parents and the teacher relationship can become one of cooperation and unity.

Browne-Owen Marriage
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Browne of Whitlatch, California announce the marriage of their daughter, Barbara, to Benjie Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Owen of Hope.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. John McElanahan, Saturday, August 24, 1957, at the First Baptist Church, Hope.

The bride and groom are students at Ouachita college, Arkadelphia, Arkansas. After a brief trip to the mountains of northern Arkansas, they are at home in Hope.

Coming and Going
Mrs. W. C. Andres of Byran, Texas arrived this week to spend

Hal Boyle

Continued from Page One

so, as a result, I never got my teeth knocked out and today I have all my own chomps. In college I was too fat to play football, so I never got any broken bones.

"After college I weighed 250 pounds and was so fat that no woman wanted to marry me. This enabled me to concentrate on my job selling food sauces—and by the time I was 35 I had saved $50,000 in cash.

"Then my dear uncle, who weighed 315 pounds, died at 79 (God rest his soul) and left me another $50,000. That gave me $100,000 and I sank it all into a firm that manufactured a new antiflat pill I was named president and the company prospered from the start.

"But the more money we made the more I ate, so that my climbed to 312 pounds. Other members of the firm suggested I either go on a diet or sell out to them.

"I wouldn't change my eating habits, so I sold out—for $3,000,000. That was five years ago. By careful investment I doubled my money. A few months ago I put my $6,000,000 into four per cent municipal bonds. They give me an income of $240,000 a year—tax free.

"I now eat from four to seven meals a day, depending on how I feel, and I weigh 345 pounds and feel fine. I carry $5,000 in my wallet at all times, just to be sure I won't ever have to go hungry. I sleep until noon every day, and can go anywhere or do anything I please.

"I have 40 pairs of shoes, 50 suits, 150 shirts and 300 neckties. Perhaps, of course, I have missed something in life by remaining fat. On the other hand I have a 10-room air conditioned penthouse on Park Avenue, 300 cars and 5 servants. If I want a date, all I have to do is pick up the phone and call anyone of a dozen beautiful chorus girls. They may, it is true, think I'm a bit chunky, but they like my chubby bankroll.

"Well, friend, that brings my story up to date. And now, skinny, I am quite willing to hear your tale of job. Please go right ahead and tell me how much more you've forgotten out of life by counting your calories."

The slender man faked up the letter, handed it back to the fat man, and silently walked out of the bar.

Says Education Has No Final Victories

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Every triumph in vocational education creates a new set of obstacles in never-ending progress. John G. Rye of Russellville told the opening session of the annual Vocational Education Conference here yesterday.

"There are no permanent victories," the vice chairman of the state Board of Vocational Education told more than 500 delegates. "The job gets bigger and bigger."

Rye's conception of the apparent treadmill in education was part of his keynote address.

Two Conway men said that a system of swapping ideas would improve the quality of vocational education.

Supl. Hays Gibson and E. C. Standerfer, a vocational agriculture teacher told how a pilot project in Faulkner County provided the opportunity for the exchange of methods and ideas.

At the conference the Bentonville chapter of Future Farmers of America was awarded first place in a beef cattle improvement program sponsored by a private foundation. Other winners included the De Queen chapter.

The teachers' conference ends tomorrow.

In 1956 cut flowers were the largest air cargo carried by one of the major U.S. airlines. Machinery had first place for freight to be flown.

mean that Leggett will be ultimately found insane and thus indefinitely escape execution.

Faubus' action stemmed from a preliminary report by three staff members of the Kansas clinic who examined the 20-year-old youth Dr. Herbert Klemmer, reached by telephone at Topeka, Kan., said today that his report to the governor would say that Leggett is definitely insane.

Faubus earlier had refused to commute Leggett's sentence, which was upheld by the state Supreme Court and set Aug. 30 for the execution.

Klemmer said in Topeka that the final report by himself and his associates would be sent to Faubus within 10 days.

Leggett "certainly is psychotic and his mental illness contributed to his criminal acts."

State Hospital psychiatrists here who examined Leggett over a period of 30 days or longer testified at his trial that he was sane then and at the time of young King's murder. Police said that when Leggett was arrested he was in the act of raping two teen-aged Jacksonville sisters.

Klemmer, educational director for Menninger Clinic, and two members of the clinic staff—Dr. Herbert Madlin, senior psychiatrist, and Dr. Irwin Rosen, a psychologist—examined Leggett at the request of a television station newsmen. Faubus said he had agreed to the examination which took place at Topeka last Saturday and Sunday.

DITTO DOES DITTO—When Dr. Bill Ditto, right, a Greenboro, N.C., orthodontist, broke his leg, his father, H. Y. Ditto, of Charlotte, N.C., arrived to help out while Bill was confined to bed. Dad promptly broke his ankle when he slipped on a curb. Now Ditto lies in a hospital bed, his leg in a cast. His son lies beside him, ditto. This is the first time the elder Ditto has dittoed the younger Ditto. Heretofore Bill's experiences have followed the pattern set by his father.

DOROTHY DIX

Are You Woman or Mouse?
Share Husband's Problem.

Dear Dorothy Dix: In the fifteen years of our marriage, my husband has always been loyal and considerate. In brief, a wonderful husband. I have never had the slightest reason to doubt his fidelity.

A few months ago he was sent on a business trip for a few days. One overnight stop was at a recommended tourist home. Last week he was astonished to receive a call from the woman who runs the place, saying that her daughter is pregnant and that my husband is responsible. She wants quite a large sum of money, for which she says they won't bother my husband again. He didn't want to tell me about it at first. He claims he's innocent, but I think it would have been better if he hadn't told me. I'm very upset.

X. Y. Z.
Dear X. Y. Z.: This is a hold-up, (impure and simple. Your husband, being a businessman, undoubtedly knows how to handle the situation. The problem seems to be in your reaction. Lady, if a man can't bring his troubles home to his wife, who can he take them to? If you want to be a partner in the pleasant things of life, and be kept in the dark about the gloomy ones, you aren't fulfilling your part of the marriage vow, which said, "For better or worse, you are convinced of your husband's innocence; that's what counts. Be a woman and complete wife, not a sheltered child."

Dear Dorothy Dix: Recently my girl friend and I dated two men and, after one date, realized they were not our type. In the course of that one date, one of the men obtained possession of my earrings, which he didn't return. My friend and I are going steady now, and an occasion will soon arise at which we will encounter these two men. I'm afraid the subject of the earrings will come up. It will be difficult to explain and may cause a scene. How can I handle the situation?

FLO
Dear Flo: You don't explain the carrying situation but it all could have happened quite casually. The jewelry may have been uncomfortable, loose or defective. Tell your friend that these belongings may be returned. Avoid embarrassment in advance. Don't wait until it hits you on the head.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a married woman with two children, in love with a man who is separated from his wife. We are planning to live common-law, and he agrees to take care of my children. However, he doesn't want his family to know about us. He won't even introduce me to his mother. Don't you think he should?

TEENY
Dear Teeny: Haven't you enough pride, at least, to stay away from a man who's ashamed of you? Make another try at your own marriage, put the same amount of effort into it as you are now using to break it.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My girl friends all resent me because of my popularity with boys. I think they're jealous of me. How can I keep their friendship and maintain my popularity?

GLORIA
Dear Gloria: Share your popularity, don't try to corner the male market. Arrange dates with other girls, show them tricks of grooming and behavior. Make them look up to you, instead of resenting you.

Violence Threat

Continued from Page One

The commission is a defendant in the federal suit. This action, filed by 10 Negro ministers, seeks a ruling that the legislative act creating the commission and the three other anti-integration acts of 1957 are unconstitutional.

At least 20 Negroes are expected to enroll at Little Rock Central High and a few are eligible to enter Hall High.

Five Negro seniors already have registered at North Little Rock. Blossom said a group of Negro students would receive instructions from him and would register at Central High following the end of the formal enrollment period today.

Last night Blossom said he had no comment on Mrs. Thompson's suit.

Teamsters

Continued from Page One

next president of the union. The Ethical Practices Committee yesterday included charges against Hoffa in its report on the alleged improper Teamster activities.

Hoffa and retiring President Dave Beck came out of yesterday's session refusing to divulge any information about the course of the discussions, during which loud and angry voices were heard by reporters waiting outside.

Both men showed little concern for the new action by the Ethical Practices Committee. The attitude of the entire board, for that matter, was aptly summed up by Thomas L. Hickey, a vice president from New York.

"What's another charge, more or less" he said. Although he is opposing Hoffa for the Teamster presidency, Hickey said he

Jap Newsmen Also Refused Visas

TOKYO (AP)—A Kyodo News service executive today said all Japanese newsmen have left Communist China because the Peiping government has refused to extend their visas.

Some Japanese newsmen speculated that the Red Chinese government hopes to force Japan to accept Communist newsmen.

Coro Teranishi, foreign news chief for Kyodo, said, Toshiyuki Hamamura of the news service was the last Japanese newsmen to leave Red China. He arrived in Hong Kong Sunday after being thought the Ethical Practices Committee action would have no effect on the race.

The answer reached by the board today will be presented to the Ethical Practices Committee in Washington at a hearing next Thursday and Friday. On Sept. 24-25 the AFL-CIO Executive Council is scheduled to decide whether the Teamsters have purged themselves of the corruption charges or are to be ousted from the merged labor move-

Nashville Integration Brings Threat

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A day of orderly registration for Nashville's first integrated classes wound up last night with telephone threats aimed at a school official and six of the 13 Negro pupils enrolled in the first grade for mixed classes.

Asst. School Supt. W. H. Oliver continued last night that his family had received telephone threats after a truck driver of the same name reported he had received such threats from callers mistaking him for the official.

Enrollment yesterday was 43 per cent below expectations, officials said, but no violence or disorders were reported as Negro mothers brought their 6-year-olds to their newly assigned schools.

One white pupil enrolled in a all-Negro school. Typ revulsion, previously all-Negro school.

Telephone threats of violence and harm to their children were reported by parents of six of the Negro children. The parents of a seventh child said their phone rang repeatedly but the caller hung up without saying anything.

"The police department gave us strong and complete protection yesterday and everything went smoothly. I have been assured from them that we will receive the same protection when these children return to class," Oliver said.

Registration day was reported quiet at Clinton High School in east Tennessee. The school, 200 miles from here, was the scene of racial violence last fall when

Tractor Falls on Youth, Killing Him

MCGHEE, Ark. (AP)—A 13-year-old boy was killed when a tractor overturned on him at a farm at nearby Tular today.

Coroner Harold Dyer said the victim was Leroy Day, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Day.

Day was driving the tractor up an incline when the machine overturned. He was killed instantly, Dyer said.

The Statue of Liberty Was presented by France to the United States on the hundredth anniversary of American independence.

It became the first state-supported secondary school in Tennessee to integrate. The school enrolled two 13-year-old Negro freshmen without incident.

Three Negroes had registered last spring, and three others were expected to be on hand when the high school classes open Sept. 3. Principal W. D. Hargan said he anticipates a year without incident.

John Kasper, northern segregationist convicted of stirring up racial disorders at Clinton last year in violation of a federal injunction, appeared at Nashville schools yesterday.

He had called for a peaceful registration and confined his activities to passing out propaganda literature.

ATTENTION All Teenagers
Relieve Your Adolescent SKIN PROBLEMS

See
DIANE'S BEAUTY SALON
7-3118 204 S. Main
EDITH DIANE

For Back-to-School FASHIONS
That Rate on A-Plus!
SHOP

The Fashion Shoppe
Pho. 7-5850 112 So. Main

You get more "extras" at the Esso Sign

Extra choice of gasoline—Three outstanding motor fuels so you can select the one that best suits your car and your pocketbook. Fill up before you start your weekend trip!

Extra protection—with Uniflo Motor Oil. Developed by Esso Research, it now contains extra cleaning ingredients to keep your engine in new condition longer.

Extra convenience—25,000 Esso Dealers (one always nearby), clean rest rooms, easy-to-read maps, efficient, friendly service, too. See your Esso Dealer and start traveling first-class today!

THE SIGN OF HAPPY MOTORING

ESSO STANDARD OIL COMPANY

Special Engagement TODAY & THURSDAY Better Hurry

ISLAND IN THE SUN
Directed by ROBERT ROSSSEN

James MASON, John FONTAINE, Dorothy DANDRIDGE, John COLLINS, Michael BENNETT

Adults
Lower Floor . . . 60c
Col. Bal. . . . 50c
Children with Adults ONLY!

BANNED IN MEMPHIS
But we think you are the one to decide if you should see it!
MATINEE . . . 2:00 P. M.
EVENING . . . 7:00 - 9:00

TWO VIEWS OF THE EDSSEL four-door hardtop in the Citation series dramatically illustrate the new styling concepts which make all Edsels so vitally different. The vertical grille, dual headlights and wraparound turn indicators which follow the bumper lines, plus the concave side scallop and horizontal taillights blended into the luggage compartment lid, present a completely integrated look of tailored elegance when viewed from any angle. The Edsel will go on display in all dealer showrooms Sept. 4th.

Ford Takes Wraps Off of New Edsel

DETROIT (UP) The Ford Motor Co. today officially dropped its elaborate shroud of secrecy around the Edsel, the new medium-priced car it hopes will win back for Ford the title it lost to General Motors in the 1920's — "World's Biggest Automaker."

The nation's second-ranking producer's completely new Edsel line will compete in the fast-growing medium price field with such makes as Buick and DeSoto and is expected to carry price tags ranging from $2,500 to $4,500.

It goes on display in dealer showrooms Sept. 4.

The Ford Co. is betting 250 million dollars in design and development costs that the public will like — and buy — the Edsel.

The new Edsels — 13 models in four series — will round out Ford's line, making it competitive with other producers from the lowest to the highest priced lines. Ford hopes to sell 200,000 of the new cars in 1958.

Ford officials said the Edsel is the first new car to be introduced to the public through an entirely new dealer organization in about 50 years. A number of the Edsel dealers gave up General Motors, Chrysler, Studebaker-Packard and American Motors dealerships to handle the new Ford car.

The most distinctive feature of Edsel's external styling is its grille. It consists of a vertical, oval air opening in front of the radiator, flanked by horizontal grillwork.

The four series of Edsels — Ranger, Pacer, Corsair and Citation — all have V-8 engines which range up to 350 horsepower.

Inside, push button gear selection is located in the middle of the steering wheel. All important dials and levers are bunched together on the dashboard in front of the driver, including a drum-type speedometer, a single-dial heater-defroster-ventilator control and a tachometer to measure revolutions-per-minute. The Edsel was named for the

Expect Okay to Protecting FBI Files

WASHINGTON (AP)—House leaders expected swift passage today of a bill sponsors say is needed to protect secret FBI files from indiscriminate rummaging.

The Senate passed the disputed bill by voice vote last night, but only after revising it to specify added protection for defendants in criminal prosecutions. Two administration attempts to strengthen the measure were beaten on party-line votes.

Rep. Keating (R-NY), an author of the administration bill in the House, said he expects word from Atty. Gen. Brownell today opposing the Senate-approved amendments which were sponsored by Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo).

Keating predicted the House would stick close to the administration's version of the measure. Rep. Celler (D-NY), chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, said he would try for House approval of the O'Mahoney amendments.

The bill stems from a June 3 decision by the Supreme Court that Clinton Jencks, a former union official, had a right to examine material in FBI files furnished by witnesses who testified against him, so the defense might try to impeach their testimony.

Jencks had been convicted of swearing falsely that he was not a Communist. The Supreme Court ordered a new trial.

Since then, several lower federal courts have ordered government agencies to open their confidential files or dismiss criminal charges. But the lower courts have come up with different interpretations of the Supreme Court's decision.

Brownell has said the Jencks decision created a "grave emergency in law enforcement." He said it might allow defendants or their lawyers to rummage through confidential files and that this might, among other things, disclose government law enforcement methods.

Brownell and other top administration officials have asked for clarifying legislation. Both the Keating measure and the Senate-passed measure, and the Senate-passed bill, follow the same general pattern in trying to spell out the Jencks ruling so as to protect confidential files while safeguarding defendants' rights. But Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) said the Senate version is too weak to do the job.

Russia Claims Ballistic Missile

By DOUG ANDERSON
UP Staff Correspondent

Russia said today it has beaten the world to the "absolute weapon" — the intercontinental ballistic missile. U. S. sources were inclined to regard the Soviet claim as a bid for "victory through hot-lair power."

The official Soviet agency Tass said in Moscow that a "super long-distance intercontinental multi-stage ballistic rocket" launched somewhere in Russia recently reached an "unprecedented altitude," covered a "huge distance" in a "brief time" and "landed in the target area."

"The results obtained show that it is possible to direct rockets into any part of the world," Tass said.

U. S. government experts said the United States came to this conclusion some time ago. The question is whether the Russians really have a weapon ready for production that can convert the possibility into reality.

Western observers at the current arms talks in London regarded the Russian claim as an attempt to high-pressure other nations of the atomic "Big Five" into accepting Soviet proposals for disarmament.

U. S. senators shared the view that the Russian claim was intended primarily for propaganda purposes. Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn.) said the Tass report is "ridiculously vague... almost impossible to evaluate."

Sen. Harry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), of the Senate Armed Forces committee said the claim appears to be "ballistic black-mail" along the line of Russia's recent threats to annihilate America's allies with H-bombs in any new war.

"I don't think we can take this too lightly, but no doubt the Russians are going to use the announcement for propaganda purposes in the light of the situation in Syria," Jackson said.

Quiz Show 21 Still Is Tied

NEW YORK (AP)—Dairy farmer Harold Craig, Granville, N. Y., and industrial consultant John Baird, Los Angeles, played their record game last night on NBC-TV's Twenty-One quiz.

When they continue next Monday night, Craig will be ahead 11-10. The stakes are $1,500 a point in the difference between the scores.

Craig, 28, already has won $84,000. He could win or lose as much as $21,500 next week.

late Edsel Ford, son of the company's founder and one of the nation's great auto pioneers — Henry Ford.

Prescott News

Mrs. Sharp Entertains

Canasta Club
Mrs. E. M. Sharp entertained the 1950 Canasta Club at the Lawson Hotel on Friday afternoon. Late summer flowers in colorful hues decorated the rooms arranged for the players.

Mrs. J. B. Hesterly won high score honors.

A tasteful salad and dessert course was served to guests, Mrs. Wren Scott, Mrs. Fred Powell and members Mrs. Imon Gee, Mrs. C. G. Gordon, Mrs. J. V. Fore, Mrs. W. P. Cummings, Mrs. Homer Ward and Mrs. Hesterly.

Kiwanis Club Has

Regular Meeting
Prescott Kiwanis Club regular weekly meeting was held on Thursday evening at the Lawson Hotel.

The following business was disposed of during the business session conducted by the president, Ellis Stewart. A Boy Scout troupe to be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, the commission composed of Jeff Livingston, Jack Robey and Milton Stokes. The club voted to name the Kiwanis portion of the city park, "Mark Justiss Park" in memory of the late Mr. Justiss. A letter was received from Kiwanis International congratulating the club for its outstanding work this year.

Prescott Band

Mothers Meet
Prescott Band Mothers Club held the first meeting of the school year at the Band Building last week with the president, Mrs. Walter Connell, presiding.

Plans were made for completing the summer uniforms. The members are making capes for the uniforms this week. Plans were also formulated for a concession stand to be held at the annual Nevada County Fair. Mrs. Clarence Shope, Mrs. Gene Hale and Mrs. Harold Lewis were appointed to serve on a committee for the stand.

Mrs. Connell served cold drinks to the eighteen members present.

Joe Harrell and Howard Harrell of Little Rock were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hamilton and Mrs. J. C. Stegar.

Miss June White left last week for Washington, D. C. where she will be employed.

Mrs. N. B. Nelson has returned to Searcy after a visit with Dr. and Mrs. N. R. Nelson and Lynn.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Walls of Shelton, Texas were the Saturday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hubbard and other relatives.

Mrs. John W. Logan has returned to Conway after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Freeman Ligon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeb Wylie and son of West Monroe, La., were the weekend guests of friends and relatives.

Major and Mrs. S. B. Scott Jr. and children left Friday for his new assignment at Camp Polk, La.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Watkins, Sally Jo and John Ed have returned from Harrison where they were the guests of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Smith of Belton, Texas have been the guests of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Mack Roberts, Dunble, Mike and Bill spent a part of last

Weevil Infestation Shows Sharp Climb

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Agriculture Extension Service, reporting a sharp climb in boll weevil infestation during the past week, yesterday urged cotton farmers to go on a 5-day spraying schedule.

The agency said weevils were found in 98.3 per cent of fields inspected compared to 92.5 per cent in the previous week.

week in Pine Bluff with Mr. Roberts.

Mrs. R. A. Babb of Hope spent several days last week with her daughter, Mrs. L. J. Bryson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McMaster have returned to Oklahoma after a weeks visit with their daughter, Mrs. Loyce Anderson and family.

Cash AND Carry SALE!

LABOR DAY WEEKEND SPECIALS
PRICES GOOD THURS. — FRI. — SAT.!

INSULATED THERMOS

JUGS

With Spout — Reg. 3.79 Value

CASH AND CARRY

2.75

VAGABOND THERMOS

JUGS

With Spigot — Reg. 4.89 Value

CASH AND CARRY

3.79

WHITE MOUNTAIN
ICE CREAM

FREEZER

Gal. Size — 13.95 Value

CASH AND CARRY

9.98

ALL

FANS

REDUCED

1/3

DOLLY MADISON
ICE CREAM

FREEZER

Gal. Size — 10.95 Value

CASH AND CARRY

7.98

Admiral Chest Type — 20 Foot

FREEZER

Complete with Basket and Warning Light.
We Will Deliver Anywhere in Hempstead and Nevada County FREE. Cash and Carry.

REG.

469.95

VALUE

289.98

VAGABOND
PICNIC ICE

CHEST

Reg. 8.95 Value

CASH AND CARRY

6.98

BICYCLES

Boys and Girls — 24" — 26"
Reg. 44.95 Value
CASH AND CARRY

38.98

NO TRADE INS
PUT IN LAY-AWAY
10% Down — 75c Week

ICY - HOT
THERMOS ICE

CHEST

Reg. 11.49 Value

CASH AND CARRY

8.98

LEHMAN

Auto & Home Supply

213 S. MAIN ST. PHONE 7-2731

When you need a friend...
DOROTHY DIX

Let her be your personal counselor

Through her column, and personal, confidential replies, Miss Dix has helped thousands of troubled readers. This help is available to all who seek it.

Whether it be a family problem or a personal problem you will benefit by Miss Dix's experience... the authoritative knowledge of a judge combined with the sympathetic, human vision of a juror.

So don't let your emotions rule. Get it all your chest. Write Miss Dix today. Every letter is personally answered with sensible, practical, understanding counsel.

Read how Dorothy Dix helps others through her column every day in

HOPE STAR

THE CANVAS DAGGER

by HELEN REILLY

THE STORY: Although no one believes her story, Sarah Casement knows someone was in the room with painter Grant Melville just before he "fell" four floors to his death. Learning that the widow wants someone to help her with Melville's biography, Sarah applies for the job.

CHAPTER III

The door to the inner room opened and a tall, thin, dejected man came out. It was the owner of the hat. He paused in the doorway to say anxiously over his shoulder, "You'll let me know, Mrs. Melville."

Sarah's heart was wrenched for him. He looked uncertain and eager, and nice. From behind him Mrs. Melville said, "I have your telephone number. Thank you, Mr. Dennert," and Mr. Dennert picked up his hat jumblingly and faded away.

Gazing after him, Sarah frowned. The hairy woman was one thing, you could see her anywhere in the city of New York, particularly in the village, but Mr. Dennert was completely ordinary — why the impression that she had seen him before, too.

Standing in the doorway, Mrs. Melville beamed at the rest of them. A jangle to her left told Sarah that the other woman was on her feet. The man at the window walked toward Mrs. Melville and said pleasantly, "In Gillespie, I —"

Sarah interrupted him. "I know this isn't a meat counter, but I did get here first," she said, annoyed.

The other woman said eagerly, "I'm Miss Dolwin, Crystabel Dolwin. I knew your husband — a wonderful man. He was an inspiration to me. . . . You remember my call, Mrs. Melville?"

Mrs. Melville said, "Yes, yes, I do. I'm sorry to inconvenience you. I'm behind schedule, but there have been so many applicants."

She didn't look sorry, she looked like a pleased child playing a new game. She smiled at Sarah. "You're Miss Casement for 11 o'clock. Do come in."

The inner room was long, large high-ceilinged, and crowded with furniture. A fire snapped on the hearth. Its light and shadow accentuated the confusion of walls hung solid with oils. This was Grant Melville's habitat, this was one of the rooms in which he had lived. Was it his taste, or his wife's?

Mrs. Melville was arranging herself rustlingly on a red velvet live seat. She waved at a little damask bergere opposite the coffee table in front of her. "Do sit down, Miss Casement. Coffee."

Sarah accepted coffee in a Spode cup. Mrs. Melville went on rustling as she poured. She wore a long black taffeta affair softened with a profusion of creamy lace; it could be a housecoat or a tea gown, if you still admitted the existence of tea gowns. The room was hot, the air heavy with the odor of roses. It began to assume the atmosphere of an odd if not unpleasant dream.

Still with her naive, pleased, amateur air Mrs. Melville said, "Now, I'm planning to have a book done on my husband, who died not quite three weeks ago, and the sooner the work is begun the better. He was a great man, Miss Casement, a great painter and a loss to the world of art."

"Yes," Sarah said. "Portraits."

Harrison Is Absent From Magazine Trial

By BOB THOMAS

LOS ANGELES (AP) — As the Confidential Magazine trial goes into its fourth week today, witnesses have sketched an intriguing picture of the man who wasn't there. He is confidential publisher Robert Harrison, who is mentioned, constantly in the testimony, but stays far, far away from the courtroom, in New York.

Actually, there are two pictures of Harrison. According to prosecution witnesses, he is a terrible-tempered man who will go to any extreme to sell magazines. According to defense witnesses, he is a crusader who is out to attack corruption in government and the "false idols" of the entertainment world.

You can take your pick. But some non-controversial aspects can be determined. For instance, there is no doubt he has been successful in selling Confidential. High water mark for its circulation was around 4 million. He should be a wealthy man, since he is reported to earn 14 cents from each 25-cent magazine.

Harrison got his inspiration for Confidential by observing tastes of certain segments of the American public. He apparently was impressed by the sales of the Jack Laity-Lee Mortimer books, "Chicago Confidential," and "Washington Confidential," and borrowed the title from them.

Another thing that impressed him was the way Americans remained glued to their TV sets during the famed Kefauver hearings that starred Frank Costello's hands, Virginia Hill, etc.

The Confidential setup has been limited to New York state so as to eliminate tax and other dealings with "foreign states." This has made it difficult to pin the magazine down on legal matters.

No doubt about it, Harrison and Confidential are part of the social phenomenon of the United States at mid-century.

Among those covering the trial, the man who gets the most attention is an artist for a magazine. Most of the principals in the trial oversee his work and approve or disapprove how they are portrayed. Once he drew a sketch of a juror drawing a sketch of the prosecutor. No, the prosecutor wasn't drawing a sketch.

The bell of the Flatbush Reformed Church in New York City — hung in 1796 — has tolled for the funeral of every United President.

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Gardiner has given himself exactly one hour to get into and out of television.

"If you're not doing what you want most to do, you'll never be happy, will you?" he challenges.

"I've got 20-20 vision, no tears; my pulse is normal. And that's the way it's doing to stay."

Gardiner, a lanky-boned Navy Seabee from Hatch, N. M., steps into the spotlight of nationwide TV from 8:30 to 10:30 p. m. (ET) Sept. 23 as narrator of an early season spectacle, NBC's "Eleven Against the Ice," the color film account of how an Army-Navy team hacked a pioneer trail across Antarctica a few months back in the interests of scientific research.

As a "cat-skinner" (construction driver first class), 28-year-old Gardiner was one of the 11 who spent six weeks cutting a 647-mile trail from Little America to Marie Byrd Land.

He got involved in his one-shot TV career by stiking up a friendship with an NBC photographer on the trip.

"You know why I said I'd do it?" Jim asks. "For money, that's why. But no more."

"I like to earn a living with these," he says, holding up his hands. And 50 years from now my grandkids can point at a road or a bridge and say he helped build that.

"There'll be a part of me around still. There will be something permanent. But who will remember any of these commentaries?"

He wants one matter clear. "I don't want people thinking it was Big Me and the others were just along. On the trip you live in the other guy's hip pocket. If one man's in trouble, everybody is in trouble."

"The greatest lesson we all learned on the trip," he says, "is that the other guy's right. Maybe he likes to lie in the bunk over you and read and eat crackers. So maybe you share."

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

cessful in selling Confidential. High water mark for its circulation was around 4 million. He should be a wealthy man, since he is reported to earn 14 cents from each 25-cent magazine.

Harrison got his inspiration for Confidential by observing tastes of certain segments of the American public. He apparently was impressed by the sales of the Jack Laity-Lee Mortimer books, "Chicago Confidential," and "Washington Confidential," and borrowed the title from them.

Another thing that impressed him was the way Americans remained glued to their TV sets during the famed Kefauver hearings that starred Frank Costello's hands, Virginia Hill, etc.

The Confidential setup has been limited to New York state so as to eliminate tax and other dealings with "foreign states." This has made it difficult to pin the magazine down on legal matters.

No doubt about it, Harrison and Confidential are part of the social phenomenon of the United States at mid-century.

Among those covering the trial, the man who gets the most attention is an artist for a magazine. Most of the principals in the trial oversee his work and approve or disapprove how they are portrayed. Once he drew a sketch of a juror drawing a sketch of the prosecutor. No, the prosecutor wasn't drawing a sketch.

The bell of the Flatbush Reformed Church in New York City — hung in 1796 — has tolled for the funeral of every United President.

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Gardiner has given himself exactly one hour to get into and out of television.

"If you're not doing what you want most to do, you'll never be happy, will you?" he challenges.

"I've got 20-20 vision, no tears; my pulse is normal. And that's the way it's doing to stay."

Gardiner, a lanky-boned Navy Seabee from Hatch, N. M., steps into the spotlight of nationwide TV from 8:30 to 10:30 p. m. (ET) Sept. 23 as narrator of an early season spectacle, NBC's "Eleven Against the Ice," the color film account of how an Army-Navy team hacked a pioneer trail across Antarctica a few months back in the interests of scientific research.

As a "cat-skinner" (construction driver first class), 28-year-old Gardiner was one of the 11 who spent six weeks cutting a 647-mile trail from Little America to Marie Byrd Land.

He got involved in his one-shot TV career by stiking up a friendship with an NBC photographer on the trip.

"You know why I said I'd do it?" Jim asks. "For money, that's why. But no more."

"I like to earn a living with these," he says, holding up his hands. And 50 years from now my grandkids can point at a road or a bridge and say he helped build that.

"There'll be a part of me around still. There will be something permanent. But who will remember any of these commentaries?"

He wants one matter clear. "I don't want people thinking it was Big Me and the others were just along. On the trip you live in the other guy's hip pocket. If one man's in trouble, everybody is in trouble."

"The greatest lesson we all learned on the trip," he says, "is that the other guy's right. Maybe he likes to lie in the bunk over you and read and eat crackers. So maybe you share."

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gives Himself Hour to Do or Don't on TV

By WILLIAM GLOVER

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Gardiner has given himself exactly one hour to get into and out of television.

"If you're not doing what you want most to do, you'll never be happy, will you?" he challenges.

"I've got 20-20 vision, no tears; my pulse is normal. And that's the way it's doing to stay."

Gardiner, a lanky-boned Navy Seabee from Hatch, N. M., steps into the spotlight of nationwide TV from 8:30 to 10:30 p. m. (ET) Sept. 23 as narrator of an early season spectacle, NBC's "Eleven Against the Ice," the color film account of how an Army-Navy team hacked a pioneer trail across Antarctica a few months back in the interests of scientific research.

As a "cat-skinner" (construction driver first class), 28-year-old Gardiner was one of the 11 who spent six weeks cutting a 647-mile trail from Little America to Marie Byrd Land.

He got involved in his one-shot TV career by stiking up a friendship with an NBC photographer on the trip.

"You know why I said I'd do it?" Jim asks. "For money, that's why. But no more."

"I like to earn a living with these," he says, holding up his hands. And 50 years from now my grandkids can point at a road or a bridge and say he helped build that.

"There'll be a part of me around still. There will be something permanent. But who will remember any of these commentaries?"

He wants one matter clear. "I don't want people thinking it was Big Me and the others were just along. On the trip you live in the other guy's hip pocket. If one man's in trouble, everybody is in trouble."

"The greatest lesson we all learned on the trip," he says, "is that the other guy's right. Maybe he likes to lie in the bunk over you and read and eat crackers. So maybe you share."

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Favorite figureheads in American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin, and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

Gardiner has become a confirmed explorer. He volunteered to go along when the next Antarctic party sets out in November.

For when he gets back, Gardiner's already got precise plans laid that include no television.

"I'm going to load the wife and three children two girls and a boy in a jeep and go rabbit hunting across the western plains."

Shave and a Shampoo...1¢

With GAS...hot water costs your family only 4 cents a day

... And Pop's morning shave, shampoo or shower just starts the every-day use of hot water. Hot water for clothes... dishes, cooking... family baths... Hot water ready all day, for just pennies a day, with natural gas!

...and only natural gas gives you

More Hot Water Faster

Safer Operation

Hot Water for All the Family All the Time

Water Always Hot Enough for Automatic Dishwashers

Hot Water up to 4 to 5 Times Cheaper

...SAVINGS WITH GAS WILL PAY FOR THE HEATER ITSELF IN ONE TO TWO YEARS!

See Your Dealer or Plumber

USE THE ALG FINANCE PLAN

ARKANSAS LOUISIANA GAS COMPANY

For your automatic washer Replace that SLOW water heater with a FAST Laundry Rated RUUD ALCOA ALLOY automatic GAS water heater

Designed to keep up with any automatic washer... your washer!

Yours on Low Easy Terms Added to Your Ark. La. Gas Co. Bill.

Roy Warren PLUMBING
N. Hazel St., Phs. 7-4337

Classified Ads

Ads Must Be in Office Day Before Publication

WANT AD RATES
All want ads are payable in advance but ads will be accepted over the telephone and accommodation accounts allowed with the understanding the account is payable when statement is rendered.

Number	One	Three	Six	One
Days	Days	Days	Days	Month
Up to 15	.45	.90	1.50	4.50
16 to 30	.60	1.20	2.00	6.00
31 to 45	.75	1.50	2.50	7.50
46 to 60	.90	1.80	3.00	9.00
61 to 75	1.05	2.10	3.50	10.50
76 to 90	1.20	2.40	4.00	12.00
91 to 105	1.35	2.70	4.50	13.50
106 to 120	1.50	3.00	5.00	15.00

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY
1 line 75c per inch
2 lines 60c per inch
3 lines 50c per inch
4 lines 40c per inch
5 lines 30c per inch
6 lines 20c per inch
7 lines 15c per inch
8 lines 10c per inch
9 lines 8c per inch
10 lines 6c per inch
11 lines 5c per inch
12 lines 4c per inch
13 lines 3c per inch
14 lines 2c per inch
15 lines 1c per inch
16 lines 1c per inch
17 lines 1c per inch
18 lines 1c per inch
19 lines 1c per inch
20 lines 1c per inch
21 lines 1c per inch
22 lines 1c per inch
23 lines 1c per inch
24 lines 1c per inch
25 lines 1c per inch
26 lines 1c per inch
27 lines 1c per inch
28 lines 1c per inch
29 lines 1c per inch
30 lines 1c per inch
31 lines 1c per inch
32 lines 1c per inch
33 lines 1c per inch
34 lines 1c per inch
35 lines 1c per inch
36 lines 1c per inch
37 lines 1c per inch
38 lines 1c per inch
39 lines 1c per inch
40 lines 1c per inch
41 lines 1c per inch
42 lines 1c per inch
43 lines 1c per inch
44 lines 1c per inch
45 lines 1c per inch
46 lines 1c per inch
47 lines 1c per inch
48 lines 1c per inch
49 lines 1c per inch
50 lines 1c per inch
51 lines 1c per inch
52 lines 1c per inch
53 lines 1c per inch
54 lines 1c per inch
55 lines 1c per inch
56 lines 1c per inch
57 lines 1c per inch
58 lines 1c per inch
59 lines 1c per inch
60 lines 1c per inch
61 lines 1c per inch
62 lines 1c per inch
63 lines 1c per inch
64 lines 1c per inch
65 lines 1c per inch
66 lines 1c per inch
67 lines 1c per inch
68 lines 1c per inch
69 lines 1c per inch
70 lines 1c per inch
71 lines 1c per inch
72 lines 1c per inch
73 lines 1c per inch
74 lines 1c per inch
75 lines 1c per inch
76 lines 1c per inch
77 lines 1c per inch
78 lines 1c per inch
79 lines 1c per inch
80 lines 1c per inch
81 lines 1c per inch
82 lines 1c per inch
83 lines 1c per inch
84 lines 1c per inch
85 lines 1c per inch
86 lines 1c per inch
87 lines 1c per inch
88 lines 1c per inch
89 lines 1c per inch
90 lines 1c per inch
91 lines 1c per inch
92 lines 1c per inch
93 lines 1c per inch
94 lines 1c per inch
95 lines 1c per inch
96 lines 1c per inch
97 lines 1c per inch
98 lines 1c per inch
99 lines 1c per inch
100 lines 1c per inch

PHONE: PROSPECT 7-3431

Hope Star

Star of Hope 1899, Press 1927
Consolidated January 10, 1929

Published every weekday afternoon by STAR PUBLISHING CO.
C. E. Palmer, President
Alex. M. Washburn, Secy-Treas.
at The Star Building
212-14 South Walnut Street
Hope, Arkansas

Also: M. Washburn, Editor & Publisher
Paul M. Jones, Managing Editor
George W. Heimer, Mech. Supv.

Entered as second class matter of Post Office at Hope, Arkansas, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations

Subscription Rates (payable in advance):
By carrier in time and neighboring towns $.25
Per week 1.00
Per month 3.00
Per quarter 8.50
Per six months 15.00
Per year 28.00
Single copies 5c
Other mail 1.10
Three months 3.25
Six months 6.50
One year 12.00
Net Advertising Representatives:
Arkansas: Dallas, Inc., 1602 Sterick
Bldg., Memphis 2, Tenn.; 505 Texas
St., Dallas 2, Texas; 360 N.
Michigan Ave., Chicago 1, Ill.; 60 E.
42d St., New York 17, N. Y.; 1763
Pennacott Bldg., Detroit 2, Mich.;
Birmingham Bldg., Oklahoma City 2, Okla.

Member of The Associated Press:
The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to use for publication of all the local news printed in this newspaper, as well as all AP news items.

WHITE CROSS PLAN
HOSPITAL INSURANCE
Banks Life and Casualty Co.
PAUL B. HOOTEN
Call After 6 p. m. Phone 7-4557

ANNOUNCING
A new Electric Service, Wiring, Repairs, Fixtures and Small Appliance Repairs. Located at my home, 209 North Walnut. For Service Day or Night Call 7-2476.
HOPE ELECTRIC SERVICE
Billy Ray Seale

BROWN WESTERN SHARES of Diversified Income Fund Prospectus available from
M. S. BATES
AGENT
Hope, Ark. Phone 4454

WANTED TO BUY
Pine Plowbed by Truck Load
Cut in woods or otherwise.
HAROLD HENDRIX
Phone 74321
10th & Louisiana, Hope, Ark.

HOUSE MOVING
Free Estimates - Insured
Reasonable Rates
We Buy and Sell Houses
MACK HILLERY
Phone 942-K-11

roller SKATING
AT HOPE SKATELAND
Open every night except Wed.
and Sun. Open Sun. afternoons from 2 - 5 p. m. Night sessions from 7 - 11 p. m. Night 2 p. sessions - 7 - 9 p. m. & 9 - 11 p. m.

Local Moving and Hauling - Also Packing and Crating
Account for MAYFLOWER Long Distance Movers
Phone 7-3431

Hope Transfer Co.
217 South Main
Hope, Arkansas
Phone 7-3431

Real Estate for Sale

JUST Outside City Limits: 5 Room Brick Veneer - Modern in every respect. Plenty Shade trees, Large Laying House and Equipment, approximately 400 Hen capacity, Garage and Brooder House Combination - 10 acres land, Good fences. Priced to sell.

IN McCaskill: Beautiful Brick Veneer, 3 bedroom home, completely furnished, 2 acres, Located on paved highway, Water, Electricity, Butane, Ideal Location on rear of lot for Broker or laying house.

NEAR Columbus: Modern 5 room
Frame House and Auto Repair
Shop. On State Highway, 2 acres land, fenced. Plenty repair work available year round. Ideal location for good general mechanic.

314 NO. HAMILTON: 5 room frame, Good Neighborhood,
Priced to sell at $3500.00. Terms.

AT 408 So. Edgewood large shady lot, 100' by 150' with small 5 room house. A bargain at $3,500.

68 1/2 ACRES (on newly paved) patron road. Good 5 room frame house, bath, electricity, butane, barn and outbuildings. Fenced.
Ideal for nice country home. Priced to sell.

ON Proving Ground Road - 2 bedroom home almost new, attic fan, floor furnace, laundry room.
Lot 100'x300', $1200 cash and assume GI loan, $43.16 per month, includes taxes and insurance.

GREENING INSURANCE &
REALTY CO.
Insurance - Loans - Real Estate
209 So. Main Phone 7-4661
14-17

Wanted to Buy
WANTED at once, 25 or 30 grain fed shots. See I. H. Beauchamp at Elevins. 26-31p

Wanted to Rent
FIVE, Six or Seven room house.
Phone 7-2014. 27-31p

Lost
GOLD Billfold, lost at Barry's Grocery Saturday. If found, call
7-2688. Reward will be given. 26-31p

The Negro Community

Ethel Hicks
Phone 7-4678 or 7-4474

Thought For The Day
What helps luck is a habit of watching for opportunities, of having a patient but restless mind, of sacrificing one's ease or vanity, or uniting a love of detail to foresight, and of passing through hard times bravely and cheerfully. - Victor Cherbuliez said it.

Calendar Of Events
Revival Services
At Mandeville
The Rev. Mrs. Mamie B. Davis, wife of the Pastor of Davis Chapel Methodist Church, will conduct revival services at Mt. Pleasant C. M. E. Church, Mandeville, Arkansas September 1st-6th. Rev. E.
Pickins, Pastor.

Sunday School, A. C. E.
League, Layman's
Convention Scheduled
The Sunday School, A. C. E.
League, and Layman's Convention of the Prescott District, West Arkansas Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at Craven Chapel A. M. E.
Church, Prescott, Ark., August
30th-September 1st. Rev. M.
Barnes, Host Pastor.

Theme of the meeting is "Building Tomorrow's Church." Today's Workshop Objectives: (1) To develop a better understanding of our church's needs, and to inspire Christian Leadership; (2) To increase youth's appreciation of their church; (3) Seek to foster in growing persons a more progressive and continuous Christlike character.
Highlights of the meeting will be the Annual Sermon which will be delivered by the Rev. G. Paschal, Pastor of Craig Chapel A.
M. E. Church, Ashdown, Arkansas;
Areas of Study: (1) Know Your Church conducted by Mrs. Estell
Green of Gurdon, and the Rev.
W. C. Kirk, Pastor of St. James
A. M. E. Church, Texarkana. (2)
"Youth at Work" conducted by Mrs. Janever Grisby of Hope, and
Rev. R. T. Williams, Pastor of Bethel A. M. E. Church, Gurdon.
(3) Layman's League conducted by Mrs. L. M. Davis of Hope, and Miss Lila Upchurch of Prescott.
The Miss of Mr. Prescott District Contest, at which time some girl of boy will be crowned "Miss or Mr. Prescott District," and will hold the title for one year.
The public is cordially invited to attend all sessions.
Rev. R. L. Johnson, Presiding
Elder, Mrs. D. C. Sherman, 12th Episcopal District Supervisor, The Right Rev. O. Sherman, Presiding Bishop.

Back To School Dance
Mr. Tyree Jordan will sponsor a "Back to school dance" in Harris Gym September 1st with music by the Night Trainers. Admission,
$1.00.

Revival Held At Union Chapel
The Rev. Mrs. Mamie B. Davis,
Evangelist, conducted revival services at Union Chapel, Springfield, Arkansas August 19-23. Nine persons were added to the church.
Capacity crowds attended each

Standings

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

	W	L	Pct	GB
Memphis	70	62	.567
Chattanooga	78	62	.558	1 1/2
Nashville	78	63	.553	1
Atlanta	70	71	.496	9
Mobile	60	73	.450	10 1/2
Birmingham	56	83	.402	24
Little Rock	55	86	.390	24
New Orleans

Yesterday's Results
New Orleans 5, Little Rock 2
Mobile 3, Memphis 2
Chattanooga 12, Nashville 3
Atlanta 4, Birmingham 1

Today's Games
Little Rock at New Orleans (2)
Chattanooga at Nashville
Memphis at Mobile
Birmingham at Atlanta

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	W	L	Pct	GB
New York	80	45	.640
Chicago	75	49	.605	4 1/2
Boston	65	59	.524	14 1/2
Detroit	63	62	.504	17
Cleveland	61	65	.484	19 1/2
Baltimore	59	64	.480	20 1/2
Kansas City	9	77	.389	31 1/2
Washington	47	78	.376	33

Yesterday's Results
Cleveland 5, Baltimore 1
Kansas City 3, Washington 1
New York 12, Chicago 6
Boston 7, Detroit 5 (11 innings)

Today's Games
New York at Chicago (N)
Washington at Kansas City (N)
Baltimore at Cleveland (N)
Boston at Detroit

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	W	L	Pct	GB
Milwaukee	77	47	.621
St. Louis	70	55	.560	7 1/2
Brooklyn	70	56	.556	8
Cincinnati	63	62	.504	14 1/2
Philadelphia	63	62	.504	14 1/2
New York	61	68	.473	18 1/2
Chicago	49	73	.402	27
Pittsburgh	47	77	.379	30

Yesterday's Results
St. Louis 11-1, Pittsburgh 2-2
Milwaukee 4, New York 3
Cincinnati 5, Philadelphia 2
Chicago 8, Brooklyn 4

Today's Games
Chicago at Brooklyn (N)
Milwaukee at New York (N)
St. Louis at Pittsburgh (N)
Cincinnati at Philadelphia (N)

By The Associated Press
American Ass'n.
Indianapolis 3, Charleston 2
Wichita 4, Louisville 3
Denver 13, Minneapolis 8
Omaha at St. Paul, doubleheaded, postponed, rain.

Southern Ass'n.
Atlanta 4, Birmingham 1
Mobile 3, Memphis 2
New Orleans 5, Little Rock 2
Chattanooga 1,2 Nashville 3
Texas League
Shreveport 4, Austin 0
Houston 7, San Antonio 1
Fort Worth 3, Oklahoma City 0
Dallas 5, Tulsa 5
Western League
Lincoln 2-1, Amarillo 0-4
Albuquerque 3, Topeka 2
Pueblo at Des Moines, postponed rain

The Simpson tunnel through the Alps between Switzerland and Italy is 12 miles long.

night Rev. P. L. Clinkscales, Pastor.

The Johnsons Entertain Granddaughter and Her Cousins
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Johnson entertained their granddaughter
Pat of Lincoln, Nebraska, and her cousins, Mary Etta, Waters Yancy, and D. A. Bell, Jr., of Washington, D. C. with a wicker roast and fun fest in their beautifully lighted back yard Saturday night. Games were played and enjoyed by all.

The Coopers Entertain
At Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper had as Sunday guests Mrs. Emma Gibson and Ronald Mrs. Zannie
Rand of Oklahoma; California; Mrs.
Sallie Galvin of Los Angeles, California; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Carmichael and Neva Joyce, Carmichael; Clarissie Yerger, Harriett
McFadden, and Mr. D. C. Yerger

Coming And Going
Mrs. Ralph Johnson and daughter,
Mrs. J. T. Bell and grandson
Butch, have returned to their homes in Lincoln, Nebraska after having spent their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. George and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Buffington and son, Mrs. Doshia Kimble, Mrs.
Leatha Rowe, and Mrs. C. E.
Modisette all of Magnolia, Arkansas were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. George.

Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Bell and children Mary Etta, Waters Yancy, Minnie Pearl, Harris Earl, and D.
A. Jr. have returned to their home in Washington, D. C. after having spent their vacation in Hope and other points of Arkansas and Texas.

Mrs. Sallie Galvin and Mr. D.
C. Yerger have returned to their home in Los Angeles, California
after visiting their mother, Mrs.
Clarissie Yerger and their sister
Mrs. Charles Cooper and Mr.
Cooper.

Miss Lucille White, Miss Alice Faye Easter and Elijah Easter spent the weekend sightseeing in St. Louis, Missouri.

Friends of Mrs. Vernice Foster will regret to know she is a patient at Hempstead Memorial Hospital.

Berra Slams Yanks to Win Over Chicago

By ED WILKS
Of The Associated Press
Yogi Berra.

That's all. No fancy gimmicks. No line about old pros or how the New York Yankees always win the big ones.

Just Yogi Berra.

The guy was tremendous. He drove in six runs, had four hits in five trips and stopped the nonsense with a three-run homer that cracked a 6-0 tie and hustled the Yankees to a 12-6 victory last night in the opener of that all-important three-game series with the Chicago White Sox.

It may have won the series and clinched the pennant.

The White Sox were after a sweep to stay alive. But when you sput 'em a 5-0 lead, scramble back for a tie and still lose, what's left?

While the Yankees were scram-pling to stay on top in the AL, Milwaukee's Braves were lengthening their lead to 7 1/2 games in the National with a 4-3 victory against the New York Giants. Second-place St. Louis pocketed a victory in the completion of a game suspended July 21 at Pittsburgh, but then lost the regularly scheduled game 2-1.

It was a match race against Hoot Song, who was clocked at 2:02 1-5 and 2:02 in winning her two heats against nine challengers.
Hence, the time of the final mile was below 2:08 4-5. Hickory Smoke followed the swiftly-opening gate to go in front by a length and when Hoot Song made no attempt to get in front, he simply held the margin.

But Hoot Song challenged at the head of the stretch and Hickory Smoke trotted the final quarter in 28 3-5 seconds, exceptionally fast time.

"After we passed the seven eighth pole, I knew we had it won," Simpson said. "I was eased up in the last 25 yards."

U. S. Prisons Full But Keep Budget

WASHINGTON (UP) - Federal prisons were reported today to be bulging at the seams - but staying within their budget.

James V. Bennett, Federal prison director, said 400 new prisoners were put behind bars during the first six months of the year.
They sent the population of already overcrowded federal prisons to more than 20,000 inmates.

In a half-year report to Attorney General Herbert Brownell,
Bennett said:

"While we have successfully fulfilled our basic purpose - the safe detention, training and care of federal prisoners - our greatest accomplishment in the last six months perhaps has been the fact that we did remain within our budget."

Despite the added pressure on federal jail facilities, Bennett said there were no mass demonstrations anywhere in the system and the escape rate "remained low and stable."

Merger May Settle Fight Dispute

NEW YORK (UP) - Sugar Ray Robinson's "merger proposal" was being considered today at another conference to settle the dispute over next month's Robinson-Carmen Basilio fight.

Robinson, still demanding a $250,000 guarantee from theatre-television in addition to his 45 per cent of all other net receipts, proposed that his $250,000 come from the guaranteed joint sale of 625, 000 seats by two rival closed circuit organizations.

Theatre Network Television Inc., already under contract by promoter Jim Norris, would guarantee the sale of 425,000 seats - yielding Sugar Ray about $181,000 for his 45 per cent cut, under the proposal.

And the rival Telepromper Corporation, preferred by Robinson, would guarantee the sale of 200,000 seats - providing Robinson with the rest of his $250,000.

A spokesman for Robinson said today, "Yes, 'TWP' has agreed to cooperate with the Telepromper Corporation in some sort of a guaranteed seat-sales, although there is no agreement yet of who will guarantee what."

A four-hour huddle Tuesday night failed to produce any agreement. Truman Gibson, executive secretary of the International Boxing Club, reported "no progress."

Promoter Jim Norris is not attending the meetings because he is in St. Clare's Hospital "for observation" after severe food poisoning Monday night.

Eight days ago Robinson called off his middleweight title defense against welterweight champion
Basilio at Yankee Stadium, Sept.
23; and the delay is rapidly reaching the point of no return" if the fight is to be staged as scheduled.

Parker Signs to Coach Steelers

PITTSBURGH (UP) - Raymond (Buddy) Parker, who tossed in the sponge as head coach of the National Football League's Detroit Lions little more than two weeks ago, has a new five-year contract as head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Parker, whose appointment was announced late last night by the
Steelers, succeeds Wall Kiesling.
The ex-Detroit coach said he is
asking Kiesling and all Kiesling's
aides to remain on the coaching staff.

The Steelers didn't reveal Park-
er's salary but a source close to
President Art Rooney said Rooney
agreed to give Parker "in excess
of $20,000 annually."

announced late last night by the
Steelers, succeeds Wall Kiesling.
The ex-Detroit coach said he is
asking Kiesling and all Kiesling's
aides to remain on the coaching
staff.

The Steelers didn't reveal Park-
er's salary but a source close to
President Art Rooney said Rooney
agreed to give Parker "in excess
of $20,000 annually."

announced late last night by the
Steelers, succeeds Wall Kiesling.
The ex-Detroit coach said he is
asking Kiesling and all Kiesling's
aides to remain on the coaching
staff.

The Steelers didn't reveal Park-
er's salary but a source close to
President Art Rooney said Rooney
agreed to give Parker "in excess
of $20,000 annually."

announced late last night by the
Steelers, succeeds Wall Kiesling.
The ex-Detroit coach said he is
asking Kiesling and all Kiesling's
aides to remain on the coaching
staff.

The Steelers didn't reveal Park-
er's salary but a source close to
President Art Rooney said Rooney
agreed to give Parker "in excess
of $20,000 annually."

announced late last night by the
Steelers, succeeds Wall Kiesling.
The ex-Detroit coach said he is
asking Kiesling and all Kiesling's
aides to remain on the coaching
staff.

The Steelers didn't reveal Park-
er's salary but a source close to
President Art Rooney said Rooney
agreed to give Parker "in excess
of $20,000 annually."

announced late last night by the
Steelers, succeeds Wall Kiesling.
The ex-Detroit coach said he is
asking Kiesling and all Kiesling's
aides to remain on the coaching
staff.

The Steelers didn't reveal Park-
er's salary but a source close to
President Art Rooney said Rooney
agreed to give Parker "in excess
of $20,000 annually."

announced late last night by the
Steelers, succeeds Wall Kiesling.
The ex-Detroit coach said he is
asking Kiesling and all Kiesling's
aides to remain on the coaching
staff.

The Steelers didn't reveal Park-
er's salary but a source close to
President Art Rooney said Rooney
agreed to give Parker "in excess
of $20,000 annually."

announced late last night by the
Steelers, succeeds Wall Kiesling.
The ex-Detroit coach said he is
asking Kiesling and all Kiesling's
aides to remain on the coaching
staff.

The Steelers didn't reveal Park-
er's salary but a source close to
President Art Rooney said Rooney
agreed to give Parker "in excess
of $20,000 annually."

announced late last night by the
Steelers, succeeds Wall Kiesling.
The ex-Detroit coach said he is
asking Kiesling and all Kiesling's
aides to remain on the coaching
staff.

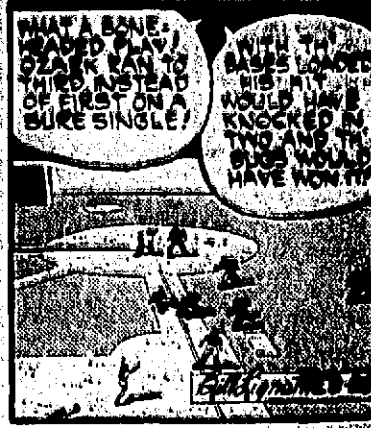

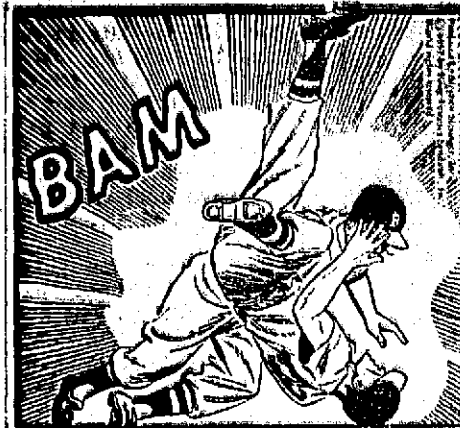

Hickory Smoke Convinces His Driver

By ED SAINSBURY
DU QUOIN, Ill. (UP) Hickory
Smoke, a crippled bay col

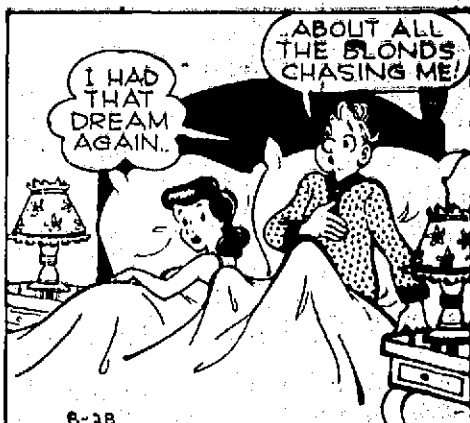

By Chick Young

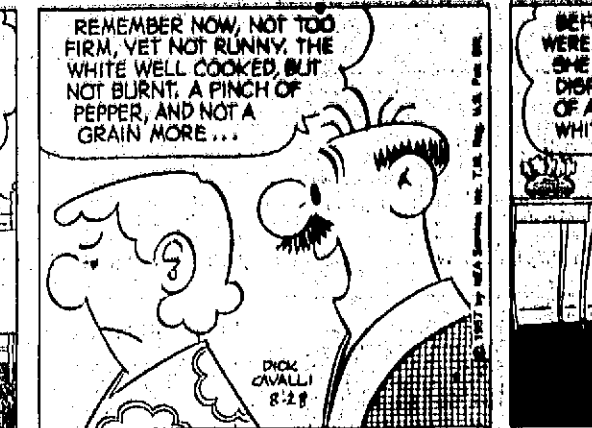

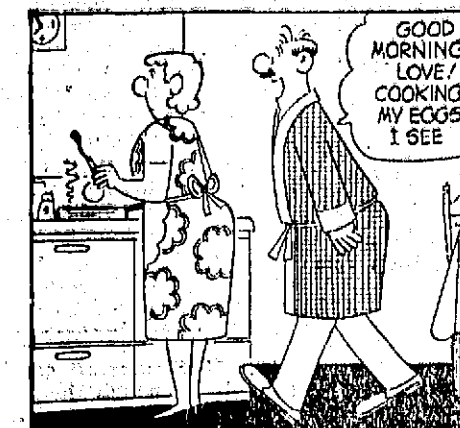

By Ed Strope

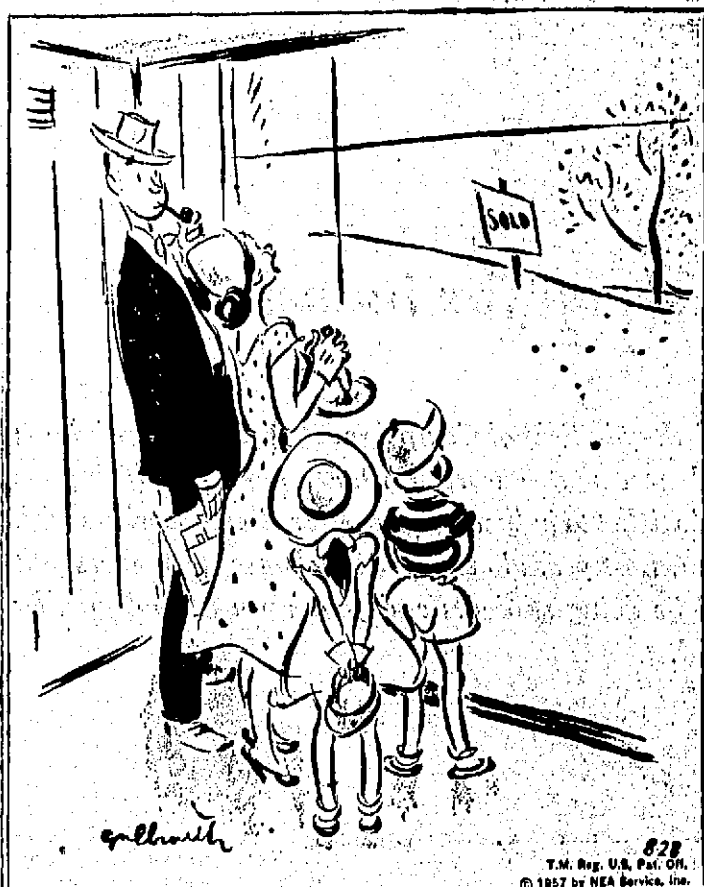

By Al Vermeer

By Dick Cavett

By Galbraith

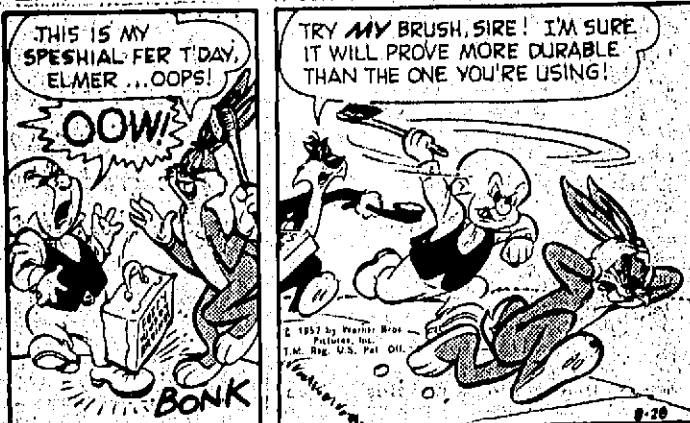

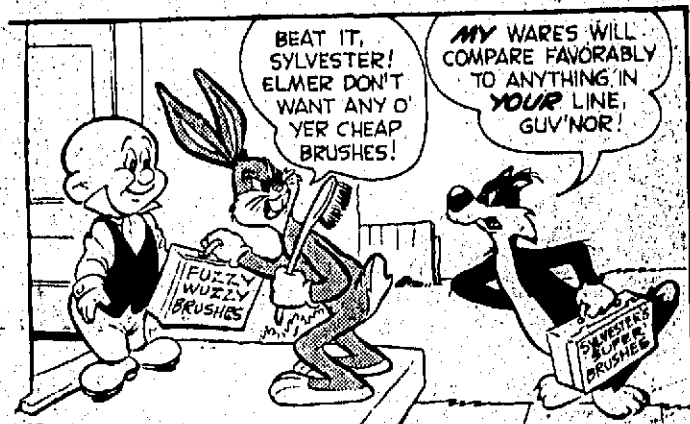

CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

Answer to Previous Puzzle

ACROSS

1 Former political party

5 First politician

9 Musical direction

12 Go on the bandwagon

13 Russian river

14 Ugly old woman

15 Political purists

17 Wood-chopping

18 President — Lincoln

18 Weeping

19 Narrow body of land

21 Asterisk

23 Watch

24 Indistinct

27 Bound

29 Spill over

32 Determines newspaper political opinions

34 Close again

36 Political columnist's pride

37 Ancient Urfa

38 Narrow cut

39 Deceased

41 Plagen

43 Faucet

44 California fog

46 Truman is one

49 Eaten away

53 Insect

54 Garden

56 Political follower

57 Emanation

58 Two-part

DOWN

1 Legal paper

2 Secrete

3 Notion

4 Mechanical devices

5 Fourth

6 Arabian caliph

6 Wish

7 Insects

8 Spars

9 Forbidden

10 Brazen

11 Middle

16 Sir Bulwer

20 German district

22 Ventilated

24 Famed Socialist politician

25 Pastoral poem

26 Operated

28 Reverie

30 Hops' kiln

31 Drama

33 Giant

35 Taro roots

40 Natural fela

43 Fig tree

45 Incline

46 Hurt

47 Preposition

48 Swing around

50 Burden

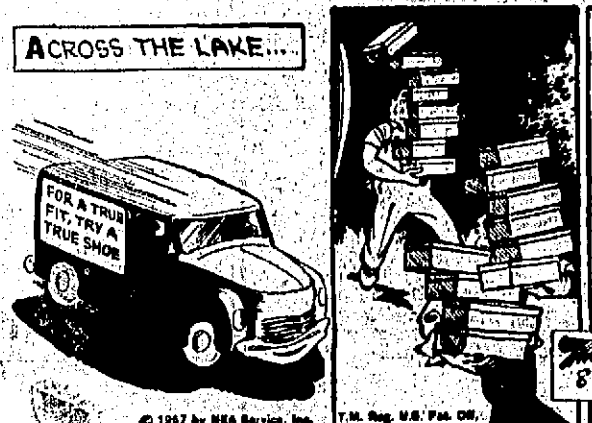

51 Shoo, cat!

52 Lampreys

55 Teetotalers (ab.)

By Edger Martin

By V. T. Hamlin

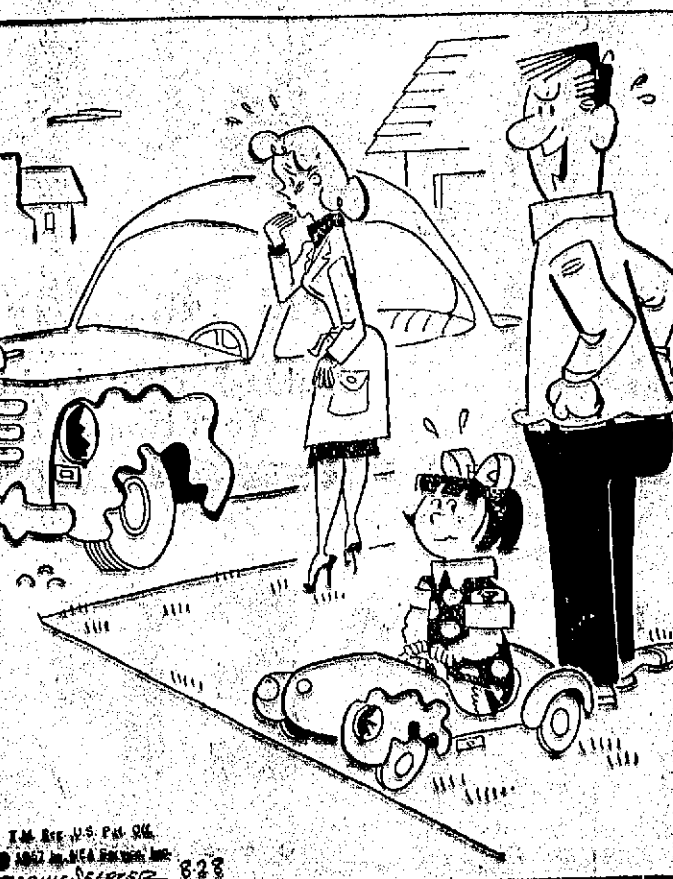

By Wilson Scruggs

By Nadine Seltzer

TIZZY

By Kate Osann

A black and white cartoon illustration by Gil Elvgren. On the left, a woman with dark, curly hair sits in a wooden armchair, reading a magazine titled "POP". She has a surprised expression on her face. To her left is a tall lamp with a large, plain lampshade. On the wall behind her are two small, square framed pictures. To the right, another woman with blonde hair, wearing a dark vest over a light-colored dress, stands near a small table. She is holding a small object in her hand. The scene is set in a simple room with a doorway visible in the background.

GIL ELVGREN

© 1967 BY THE NEW YORK TIMES

POP

PRAYS FOR HUSBAND — Haru "Gandy" Girard prays to a small Buddhist shrine in her rented room near Camp Drew, Japan, for "fair judgment" in the outcome of the trial of her husband, Army Specialist William S. Girard, who faced a Japanese court for the first time on a manslaughter charge Monday. Girard is accused of killing a Japanese woman on an Army firing range in Japan. — NEA Telephoto.

Judge's Authority Powerful Feature

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, W. — The most powerful single feature in the civil rights bill—expected to be passed soon by Congress—was one which received little attention and caused almost no fighting.

It's the broad authority of a federal judge to force compliance with his orders under civil contempt proceedings. Most of the attention and fighting were concentrated on what he could do under criminal contempt.

But it's this writer's guess that criminal contempt still be used rarely in comparison with the times judges will rely on their civil contempt powers to force compliance with their orders in voting rights cases.

This is an example of what a judge could do to a man accused—in a voting rights case—of civil contempt of court for not carrying out a court order:

Suppose a judge in a Southern state order Registrar Jones to let a Negro named Smith register to vote. The deadline for voting comes near and Jones hasn't complied. Then the judge:

1. Could try Jones—by himself and without a jury trial—for civil contempt.
2. He could slap Jones in jail without any fixed sentence. Jones could be jailed until he sends word to the judge he will comply.
3. He could fine up to any amount—there's no limit—to force his compliance. If Jones complied, the judge could then remit the fine.

4. He could fine Jones day by day, for every day he does not comply.

5. He could award damages to Smith. This would probably come out of the fine imposed on Jones. But in this case—once the damages were awarded—Jones wouldn't get his money back even if he complied.

6. He could ask Jones to file a large bond to insure his compliance. For example, he could set the bond at $50,000. If Jones got a company or an individual to put up the bond, the company or individual would be pressuring him to comply.

The reason is simple: If Jones didn't comply, the bond would be forfeited.

7. He could order a United States marshal to register Smith if Jones didn't comply by registering the man himself.

8. Or he could order Smith to go ahead and vote without being registered. In this case, no doubt, Smith's vote might not be counted.

But most Southern states, like other states, have permanent registration.

So if Registrar Jones were from one of them—and disobeyed a court order to register Smith under civil contempt proceedings—he might have to stay in jail a long time.

It's possible now Southern states will change their laws to avoid such a situation by providing for a comparatively short registration period. That's a guess.

But they changed their school laws after the Supreme Court in 1954 ordered an end to racial segregation in public schools.

Yet, Southerners in Congress raised comparatively little fuss about the powers of a federal judge under civil contempt proceedings. In fact, they left his powers untouched, including his power to try and jail a man without a jury.

They made their big pitch on criminal contempt. A man is charged with criminal contempt after it is too late to comply with a court order. For instance:

Suppose Jones steadfastly refused to register Smith and election day came and passed with Smith unable to vote. Traditionally, in criminal contempt cases, just as in civil contempt, a judge could try and jail a man without a jury.

Southerners insisted that in criminal contempt cases there must be a jury. The Senate wrote that into the bill. But the House Republicans wouldn't buy it. So the bill was stalled in the House for weeks.

Now a compromise has been agreed to by House and Senate leaders and, when the bill is passed, this is what it will say:

A judge can still try an individual for criminal contempt without a jury provided the penalty he imposes does not exceed 45 days in jail or a $300 fine.

If he wants a man to be punished more than that, the judge must let the case be tried by a jury. If found guilty of criminal contempt by a jury, the maximum penalty would be six months in jail and a $1,000 fine.

The U. S. aircraft carrier Saratoga has enough horsepower to supply electricity for a city of 1,600,000 people.

HITCHED—Turning back the clock to the latter days of the 19th century, Dennis O'Hare and his bride, the former Anna Marie Nigro, prepare to add a horse-and-buggy touch to their wedding in Kansas City, Mo. They're ready to leave the church in a horse-drawn carriage which was used by Grover Cleveland when he was president of the United States.

Jig Is Up for Artist Parrot

LOS ANGELES — The jig is up for Rajah, the one-eyed parrot who dabbles in art. He was unmasked yesterday after his ninth showing at a city-sponsored art exhibit. An anonymous telephone tipster said his paintings were not only for the birds, but by one. "A parrot," exclaimed officials, many of whom had acclaimed Rajah's abstract oil, "Cathay Laos," as the work of a promising artist.

"A parrot," sadly confirmed Rajah's owner, Miss Chandra Poweris, a writer and illustrator. She had entered the bird's painting under the name, "Rajah Chandra." "Now that people know Rajah isn't human he won't be able to exhibit at art shows," said Miss Poweris, who has supervised the parrot's three-year art career.

She began by giving Rajah a first-hand appreciation of the masters.

Side Time, Negro Students Advised

LITTLE ROCK — Supt. Virgil Blossom said yesterday he has advised the handful of Negro students who will attend integrated high school classes here next week to bide their time until after regular registration.

"I told them I wanted to instruct them first," Blossom said.

Formal enrollment ends here tomorrow. Aside from the five Negroes who registered last week at North Little Rock no additional Negroes have signed up in this area.

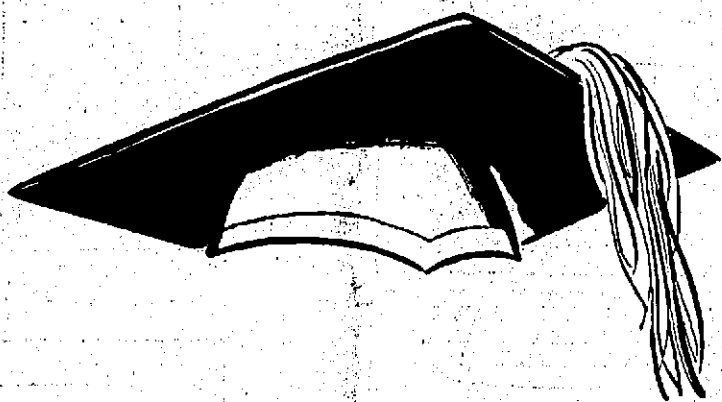

Both Little Rock and North Little Rock are instituting gradual integration this fall.

Meantime a committee from Negro P-TA groups is expected to seek a meeting in the next few days with police and school officials to try to arrange for police protection for Negro students.

Sheriff Tom Guiley said he was ready to cope with "any situation" or help Little Rock police if necessary. Police Chief Marvin Polts of Little Rock was not available for

"I'd put him in my handbat and sneak him into museums to see famous paintings," she said.

At a recent Van Gogh exhibit the Asian-bred dwarf parrot peeked out of the bag and began muttering in Chinese. Miss Poweris said, "So we left quickly."

Help set Arkansas' cap for industry

... by supporting Arkansas' Stay-in-School Campaign. A high school diploma is the graduate's ticket to advancement — worth $30,000 more pay during his work-life. It is also your town's ticket to industry looking for skilled workers with a basic high school education. Last year alone 57,138 Arkansas teen-agers quit before graduation. You will be doing students and your town a good turn by urging them to stay in school.

Arkansas Industrial Development Commission
state capital little rock fr 3-3181

NOTICE

At a recent Retail Merchants Committee Meeting those present voted to close their stores in observance of LABOR DAY Monday September 2nd.

It has been reported to the Committee that a majority of the Retail Stores will be closed on this day.

Retail Merchants Division,
Hope Chamber of Commerce

Sale Items You're Sure to Want to Take Advantage of For Back-to-School, or Wear Over the Labor Day Weekend!

Entire Stock
Ladies' N' Children's
Summer Sleepwear
Cotton plisse Gowns and Pajamas All sizes
1/2 Price

One Group of Ladies' Hats
Asst. summer styles white and colors
50¢

Entire Stock of SUMMER MATERNITY WEAR
Dark tones that can be worn on into Fall
Complete range of sizes
1/2 PRICE

One Large Rack
Children's Dresses
Reg. values of 1.98 to 3.95
Cottons and Asst. fabrics All sizes
150¢

Men's 2.49 - 2.98
Sport Shirts
Short sleeve styles Plaids, fancies and solids Sizes S-M-L-XL
175¢

One Rack
Children's Blouses
Reg. values up to 1.98 sizes 3 to 14
73¢

Limited Group
Ladies' Sandals
Values to 3.95 Broken size range
167¢

REPHAN'S
REDUCTION CLEARANCE
Starts Thursday Morning! Don't Miss It!
Value-Packed Savings For Yourself, Your Family and Your Home! Hurry in early for best selections!

Entire Stock
Ladies' Sportswear
Shorts, Pedle Pushers etc. All sizes
1/2 Price

One Large Counter BOYS
Sport Shirts
Solids and fancies Short sleeve styles Sizes 6 to 16 35¢

Entire Stock
Ladies' N' Children's
Swimwear
Asst. styles and colors Complete range of sizes
1/2 Price

Entire Stock
Ladies' Handbags
Summer styles Asst. colors
1/2 Price

Children's Sportswear
Large Selection
1/2 Price

Men's First Quality
SKIP DENT
Sport Shirts
Cool, short sleeve styles Pastels and white Sizes S-M-L 88¢

One Table — Piled High
Children's Sandals
Values up to 2.98 Sizes 3 to 14
73¢

Select Group
Ladies Cotton Dresses
Reg. values of 2.98 - 3.98 Sizes 9 to 15 10 to 20 Machine Washable
188¢

REPHAN'S
• • • where hundreds shop and save every day!

One Group of
MEN'S SUMMER
Straw Hats
Wide or narrow band Sizes 6 7/8 to 7 1/4 75¢

One Group of
Men's Pants
Seersuckers and cords Most all sizes
75¢